

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Marion Brooks

Build 'Em Quick club was organized among the Langlois 7th and 8th grade boys, as a Health Club, Dec. 12. Wilbur Jensen was elected president; Gary Steddon, vice-president; Ted Pitt, song leader; David Boice, reporter and Robert Stankavitch, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell of Coos Bay were over-night visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith. They visited other friends while here. Robert will be remembered by many local residents as he attended high school here a few years ago.

Mr. Jensen took Mary Jo to the Coos Bay hospital Saturday for a check-up. She is doing nicely at present.

Mrs. Elma Rigik stopped in Langlois for a while Saturday on her way to Portland. She also wanted to look over their property for storm damage that might have been caused by recent gales. Elnora and Mike were with her.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKenzie Friday morning at the Mast hospital Myrtle Point, an 8½-lb. son, Robert George III.

Johnny Bruchler is home from the hospital after a second operation in less than two months.

New officers of Sixes Grange held a planning and practice meeting Friday evening. A similar meeting will be held every two months in interest of good Grange work.

Clarke Slocum left for Arizona Wednesday morning for an indefinite stay.

Floras Willow Club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Slocum last Thursday afternoon. Ten members and two visitors were present. After a business meeting at which the ladies voted $10 to the Bandon hospital as a Christmas gift. A social hour was enjoyed. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Joe Nilsen at her home on Langlois hill. It will be a birthday meeting.

At the final meeting of a series of Evangelistic meetings being held at the Langlois Community church, by Elders Wyman and Biehm of the Adventist church, their will be a Christmas program and everyone is invited to attend. There will be special Christmas music and the wonder of the old Christmas story will be re-told. This is to be Sunday, Dec. 23.

Regular meeting of the Sixes Grange will be held Saturday. This will be a Christmas meeting with exchange of gifts. Part of the program will be the graduation exercises of several juvenile Grangers into the sub-ordinate Grange.

Mrs. Nancy Miller of Myrtle Point, sister of Dick Barklow, spent Sunday at the Barklow home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sweet, long-time residents of this area, have sold their home to Charles and Dorothy Doane and moved to the old family ranch on Coquille river, where Al spent his boyhood.

Members of Langlois Community church surprised Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore with a singaree. A pleasant evening was spent in visiting and singing, with coffee and cake served by the guests.

BRIDAL SHOWER
Dec. 11 LeElla Kamph and Marcha Haga honored Morene Bruchler with a bridal shower. It was held at Langlois Hig. in the science room.

Buy at home—it really pays!

Rotarians who wish to bring guests to the annual Christmas party, should let Bob Phillips or Earl Breuer know before next Wednesday that a place may be set for them.
