

SMITH RIVER

Ladies society of the church met at the social room of the church Tuesday afternoon to enjoy its annual Christmas party and program. A decorated tree and other greenery carried out the holiday theme. An enjoyable program under direction of Ruth Knudson was given: Reading, Luke's gospel, the Birth of Jesus Christ, Agnes Maris; singing of carols by all; reading of Christmas story by Audrey Zosel. The exchange of gifts followed. Refreshments were served from a table centered with a miniature tree and greenery. Tea hostesses were Hazel Cearley and Trula Ruess.

William Reidel, employe of Taylor Westbrook mill, lost part of his right hand in a sawmill accident recently. Head sawyer at the mill, he was working with a wrench when his hand slipped, cutting the saw. He was rushed to Seaside hospital where several fingers were lost. He is the father of three little sons, and is son-in-law of Ross Ruess, local barber.

Smith River Sunday school pupils, under direction of Supt. Wm. Hiall and teachers, will present the annual Christmas program, Sunday evening, Dec. 23 at 7:30 at the church. An interesting program has been arranged by the primary grades and a play by the older group. Singing of carols by the choir will conclude the program when Santa will arrive to give the treats. The public is invited.

John Ostom, principal of the union school, has recently been elected to presidency of the North Coast section of California Teachers Association. This section comprises Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino and Trinity counties.

Smith River again has a doctor and welcomes E. G. Erickson, M. D., who recently arrived from Pasadena, opening the office recently vacated by Dr. Kelty, at the hotel. His phone is 461. He has also opened an office at Crescent City with Dr. A. E. Kuhn, formerly of Klamath.

Smith River Union school children, under direction of teachers, are putting on their annual Christmas program Thursday at 8:00 p. m. at the community hall. After the Program Santa Claus will arrive and give out the big bag of treats.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook will have as guests over the holidays their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Twigg, of Palo Alto.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack VanZee and sons are spending a week's vacation visiting relatives at Woodland, Santa Rosa. They will return home by Christmas. He is inspector at the quarantine station at the state line.

Wm. Fischer, bulb grower at Rivers End, met with a painful accident while working. His tractor tipped over onto him. He escaped serious injury, although he sustained several broken ribs and bruises.

To make repairs and paint the interior, Chetco Cafe will be closed from Dec. 24 at 8:00 p. m. to Jan. 6, at 6 a. m. Mrs. Jim Robinson told the Pilot, Wednesday.

Wherever you are, whatever you do, may this holiday season be a happy one for you.
