

SMITH RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Crook announce the marriage of their son, Lester, and Miss Jean Moore of San Jose, where both live. The wedding took place Friday evening at 7:30 in the chapel of the Unitarian church at San Jose. The bride wore a gray crepe afternoon dress with gardenia corsage. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Gause, former residents of Crescent City. Following the wedding the newlyweds and immediate families received congratulations at the home of the bride's parents. Cake and ice cream were served. Among out-of-town guests were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Crook of Smith River. Mr. Crook is a graduate of Del Norte High and both are attending San Jose State College. Following their wedding trip the newlyweds arrived at Smith River to spend Christmas with the groom's parents and other relatives.

Among those who have come home to spend the holidays with home folk, with family re-unions held, were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn and children of Klamath Falls, guests of Mrs. Horn's mother, Mrs. Mabel Browne; Mr. and Mrs. John Sample of Talent, Oregon; arrived to spend the holiday with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Murton Rice of Portland came to be guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Barnum and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ulrich have as guests their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Broman and sons of Walnut Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis and children of Eureka are guests of Mrs. Davis's father, Hilmer Nilson and son, Andrew. George Jacobsen of Palo Alto arrived at home to spend the vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Jacobsen, near Rivers End.

Everyone will be looking forward to the big New Years Eve dance to be held Dec. 31 at the community hall. There will be plenty of noise makers, balloons, etc., to usher in the New Year. Supper will be served in the hall by ladies of the community. Proceeds from the dance will go toward improvement of the hall.

The drawing for the beautiful doll, with complete wardrobe and chest, was held at the Variety store, Saturday evening. Winner was Mrs. A. W. Bergren of Crescent City with No. 622. Proceeds taken in from the ticket sales will be turned over to the community hall by the Smith River American Legion Auxiliary, as its share of repairing the hall.

Miss Ann Trembly, clerk at Westbrook's Market, has resigned and left for Milbrae, Calif., to be with her mother, who is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Westbrook, accompanied the latter's sister, Miss Trembly to Milbrae to enjoy Christmas with relatives.

W. C. Penoyer, manager of the Rivers End Auto Court, suffered a severe heart attack recently, and is confined to Seaside hospital for observation and treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall and daughters, Billie and Barbara, left Saturday on a motor trip to San Diego, and while away plan to visit other interesting places during the holidays.

Christmas Program Acclaimed 'Best'

The Christmas Musical Program, staged last Sunday evening, was acclaimed by all those hearing it, "as the best ever to be staged here."

This happened after illness, bad roads, and other causes had done about everything to defeat the effort of those who were to take part.

Bradley Page, director of the Barbershop chorus, was forced to be at home by illness; Mrs. C. A. MacKenzie was unable to take her usual heavy part; and others were blocked by inclement weather from coming.
