

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Marion Brooks

Now that we have turned a fresh page in the book of life let us see what we, the people, can do to keep it clean. Let us try a little harder to do those things required of us as good citizens and demand a better record of those we put in office. We can do a lot to clean up the scandals in county, state, and national government if we will take the time to investigate the records of officials and demand more of them. Let us try to make 1952 page better than 1951.

this county. Always we have responded to the need of the less fortunate and the county has been fortunate in having so few cases in its history. Last year we had one. We have grown careless in our giving and we've dropped from being one in the upper half of Oregon counties. Our per capita was 18 1/2c, while the average was 33c. When you receive your cards, don't forget to make the effort to give a little more.
