

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Marion Brooks

Mrs. Snow, teacher in Langlois grade school, passed away last week, another victim of reckless and drunken driving. How long is this slaughter of innocent people on our highways going to be allowed to continue? When will we demand enactment of such laws that will put a stop to this sad situation?

Twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCloud of Four Mile on Dec. 17 at Mast Hospital, Myrtle Point. The girls were named Heather Ann and Holly Rosalie.

Calvin Blair of airport road attended the East-West game at San Francisco last week. He went with Ollie Dobema, Clarence Hines and M. E. Kelley of Port Orford. The group left Thursday and returned late Sunday. They went through snow at Willets, California, and again near Gold Beach.
