11 a. m. Sermon by the pastor. 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, prayer meeting at the home of Gilbert Christensen, Harbor.

Frank P. Tomkinson was speaker at the 11 o'clock service last Sabbath. He said that we live in a time of crisis—the crisis of ages, with trouble on every hand, and statesmen wondering what is coming next. Yet it can be the greatest year of our lives.

This is a time of crisis in our personal lives, but no experience will come to us but what is best for us. Crises are challenge to prayer. The speaker cited times of stress in the lives of Jacob, Elijah and others when through prayer mighty victories were won. So in the present crisis hour we should take the promises of God with us through this year, 1952.

A period of silent communion with the congregation kneeling is included in the order of service in all Christian Science churches, Sunday, Jan. 13.

The Golden Text for the semi-annual Lesson-sermon on the subject "Sacrament" is from Psalms (24:3-4), "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart."

Among citations to be read by the First Reader from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is the following line: "Simply asking that we may love God will never make us love Him; but the longing to be better and holier expressed in daily watchfulness and in striving to assimilate more of the divine character, will mold and fashion us anew, until we awake in His likeness" (p. 4).
