SMITH RIVER

The Methodist church is cooperating next week with other Methodist churches in the state in a simultaneous evangelistic campaign. There will be visitation and evening services, Sunday, Feb. 3 to Friday, Feb. 8, inclusive, under direction of Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, pastor of the Springfield, Ore., Methodist church. The public is invited to these services.

Jos. McVay, 73, passed away at Seaside hospital, Jan. 24, to which he had been confined a short time. Native of Del Norte county, he was son of the late Joseph and Betty McVay, pioneer settlers in this area. He was born Dec. 20, 1878, here, where he had spent his younger life. He followed teamster work for a number of years, and was employed in the logging at Brookings. Funeral services were held from Wier's Mortuary, Crescent City, with Rev. Eldon Farmer officiating.

Interment was in the family plot in the local cemetery. Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Daisy Sorenson of San Francisco; a number of cousins residing in this county and in Oregon: Laura Vincent, Minnie Thompson, Bud and Will McVay of Harbor and Brookings; and cousins here: Eddie Westbrook, Ada Hursh, Henrietta Woodruff and Fred Haight.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kloske of Castle Rock Resort are taking six months vacation, and left recently for a visit in southern California and Arizona. They plan to visit relatives in Michigan.

A pot luck supper, sponsored by

Smith River Womens Club for Feb. 15, has been postponed until Feb. 20 so as not to conflict with other meetings being held earlier in the month. Mrs. Mabel Browne is chairman of this affair which will be attended by club members and families.

Melvin Ferrill, clerk at Hight General Merchandise Store, has resigned and will soon leave with his family for Santa Monica, to make their home. He will be employed by Douglas Aircraft Co.

The many friends of Agnes Maris are pleased to see her out again after being confined to her home several weeks with severe attack of flu.

Misses Barbara and Billie Hall returned to their studies at Humboldt State College after spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hall, between semesters.

Visitors at the Fraternal Order of Eagles Auxiliary meeting last Friday included Mrs. Edith Hymes and May Lloyd of Selma.
