

LANGLOIS

By Marian Brooks

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clauson and children went to Grande Ronde, Ore., Friday to visit her parents. Lloyd returned last week. The Clauson family plans to go from Langlois to Grand Ronde soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Smith left for Davis, Calif., Saturday. They expect to be gone about a week, to attend a dairy convention held at Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cannon of Coos Bay have moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Cannon, their parents, and will make their home there until fall when Lynn hopes to return to finish school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Shoop have gone to Salem where Mrs. Shoop will receive medical attention. Jess Laird, Coos Bay Lumber Co truck driver, of Coquille, visited the Al Volck home Sunday.

A National School Assembly was held at the high school Tuesday. The program was a talk on "The Yankee Clipper," a world traveler.

F. M. Morris Jr. of Sixes left Monday for Linfield College, at McMinnville, to resume his college classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pook of Airport Road left for Carmel, Calif., Jan. 30 to be gone about ten days.

Mrs. Charles Button has returned to her Denmark home after several weeks absence due to ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Goldenrod Cottages spent last week at Prineville visiting her brother. Mrs. Minnie Walker of Waldport has moved to the cottages to be near her son and his family.

Mrs. Virginia Wilson, mother of Mrs. Charles Jensen, was in the Bandon hospital a few days last week due to flu and complications. She is reported to be improving.

Schools were recessed the last of the week while teachers attended institute at Coos Bay. Wilbur and Judy Jensen played before the teachers group and were commended highly. They will appear before the board of education conference soon at Portland.

Both boys and girls teams went to Coos River last Friday for basketball and volleyball. Both the local teams lost.

Charles Jensen received word from Mr. Macey, director of entertainment at the 4-H conference held at Chicago, that Wilbur and Judy stole the show on their recent appearance before the conference. They were ranked highest of the 12 acts taking part in the entertainment. People of this community and country are justly proud of them.

Mrs. William Keeling took her three children to North Bend to receive immunization shots this week.

Boys 4-H Health Club of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades report that their song leader was lost and that another had to be named. Ted Pitt left and David Stein was named in his place.

Grange youth dance group met with Mrs. Clara Irwin of Denmark Monday evening to discuss further the youth activities of the Grange. A drill team seems to be of interest and will be a decided addition to Grange work.

The Northern Curry Sheep club was organized Friday at the Jensen home in Denmark. Don Whereat will be leader. Five were present. Officers elected were: President, Wilbur Jensen; vice-president, Mary Donaldson; secretary, Judy Jensen; song leader, Dal Lang; reporter, Gordon Britton. Clifford Jenkins, county agent, attended and helped to get the club started. Mrs. Jensen served refreshments. The next meeting will be held at Don Whereat's home Saturday.

SCHOOL NOTES

This week the Bruins travel to Gold Beach to play the Panthers on their own floor. The Panthers have shown added strength in the last few weeks and it looks like the Bruins are in for a tussle on the Gold Beach floor.

Last Saturday night the local team lost to Illinois Valley 67 to 49 for the first string, but the JV's won 62 to 43. Last Friday the locals walked all over Ophir by a score of 71 to 30.

Tuesday the senior class went to Crescent City for their annual and senior class pictures.

The annual staff has shown activity the past few weeks and "ad" copy is pretty well in.

The high school team lost to the older men at donkey basketball Monday night. Although the high school boys all said that they played a better game than the men, they lost the game, due to the fact that the men seemed more expert, with more experience on staying on the donkeys.
