 "My soul shall be joyful in the Lord: it shall rejoice in his salvation" (Ps. 35:9) is the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon "Soul" for Sunday, Feb. 17.

Among the citations to be read from the Bible by the second reader is the account of Matthew of the healing by Jesus of two blind men: "And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened" (9:28,30)
 The following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be read by the first reader: "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation (page 210).

Dairymen Plan A Meeting, Monday

Coos and Curry county dairymen and their wives will meet at the community hall, Coquille, Monday, Feb. 18, at 10 a. m. A panel discussion of dairy problems with Oscar Hagg, dairy marketing specialist, serving as moderator and local dairymen, factory owners and representatives of state department serving on the panels.

Dairymen and their wives attending the meeting will be the guests of the Southern Oregon Production Credit Association for luncheon. An interesting and entertaining program is being arranged jointly between the two counties with Charles Jensen family of Denmark entertaining and telling of their recent trip to the 4-H club congress at Chicago.

The annual meeting of the Production Credit Association will be held in the afternoon, and all dairymen and wives attending will find this meeting of interest as the production credit method of financing will be presented to the group, says Clifford Jenkins, county agent.
