

PER COPY, at all newsstands _____ IOC

Brookings-Harbor Pilot

Nowhere A Finer Climate - Nowhere a Finer Community

Volume Six, Number 51.

BROOKINGS, CURRY COUNTY, OREGON

Thursday, February 21, 1952

Annual 'Fashion' Show Is Planned

Satellite Social Club met last week to formulate plans for the annual Spring Fashion Show, sponsored by the club. In conjunction with local merchants, the club has during the past three years, set a precedent in entertainment that is a real job to keep up with.

However, with a new crop of "young beauties" in the grade and high school, who will appear as models, together with outstanding fashions selected by local merchants, this year's show will set a record of the news in styles beautifully modeled.

Mrs. James Yelton is chairman of the show this year. The theme to be carried out and the entertainment planned, is still a secret, but news will be forthcoming within a week.

Tickets are now being printed, as well as posters, heralding the event, due next month.

Teachers Heard State Executive

Dr. Cecil Posey, executive secretary of the Oregon Education Association, talked to the local teachers association Monday evening. He complimented the district on its modern elementary school building. "It ranks with the best in the state and Brookings may well be proud of it," he commented, while visiting the different classes on the afternoon shift. He reminded the group that immigration, plus the increased birth rate for the last several years would require an increased school building program in the state of Oregon for at least the next ten years.

Mr. Posey further reminded the group that the school exists to provide educational opportunities for boys and girls, and that better trained teachers along with adequate building would provide the type of education we desire for these girls and boys. "We should think of our teachers as professional people along with our doctors and lawyers," he commented.

He further stated that after 1955 elementary teacher certification would require four years of college, and that beginning next year all elementary and high school principals would be required to hold the proper administrative certificate, and that heads of school systems of the first class would require superintendents credentials. Thus the teacher preparation would be up-graded to at least four years for elementary teachers, five for high school teachers and approximately 5 1/2 for administrators.

Mrs. Grace Haskins of Grants Pass was a visitor of the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Almo Newton and Florence Forgey.

C. of C. Luncheon Set For 'New Spot'

With no meeting scheduled for this week, Brookings chamber of commerce has set the next regular meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 27, at the Don Gravely club, north of town, expected to be completed this week.

Mr. Gravely, who has been at work on this new project for the past few months, is reported to be completing all the interior, in time, it is hoped for this opening for the chamber of commerce.

Response Favorable To 'Picnic' Idea

Re-action to plans for a "get acquainted" indoor picnic of the Masonic and Eastern Star social clubs at the V. F. W. hall this Saturday evening indicates there will be a good turnout of the fraternity and their adult eligible kin, according to Leonard Harvey, master of the local lodge.

Harvey said some 150 postcards have been mailed in this area and there were probably more who have not come to his notice, and who are assured a welcome.

Work toward a smooth program has been divide up and with the assured functioning of these committees a good time should be enjoyed from the 7 o'clock pot luck supper to the "lights-out."

There will be a silver offering to defray expenses and surplus, if any, will be added to the temple fund, toward a new building.

Mrs. Wesley Kindel, Mrs. C. H. Rausch, Mrs. Roy Weideman, Leonard Harvey, Sam Gott and R. D. Rowley will alternate as greeters. Other committees are: Door prizes, Priscilla Robinson; coffee, Curt Waldien; K. P., Harold Jochens; pop, Roy Molino; pop dispensers, Mrs. Maude Sandbo and Mrs. Ruby Harvey; entertainment, Charles Bickner; treasurers, Mrs. Jack Wright and Roy Hendry; Games, Lucille Molino; punch, Mrs. Agda Bickner; floor detail, Pete Tierce; bingo cashiers, Amber Campbell.

'Bon Voyage' Was Given For Kerrs

A "bon voyage" party for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr was held at the Hendricks home "play-room" Tuesday evening of last week, and was attended by about 25 friends.

The birthday of Mrs. Hendricks was also celebrated, with a cake decorated for the occasion. A second cake, topped with a ship motif, signified the tour on which the Kerrs will embark this week.

The Kerrs will visit the Holy Land, in Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, France, Holland, Germany and will sail home on the Queen Mary from England.

Chicken-pox is reported in the area, among school children. A few cases of mumps, also.

Betti Goldizen Was Wed To Navy Man At Oxnard, Calif.

Miss Betti Alwynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude N. Goldizen, of Brookings, became the bride, Feb. 19, of Charles Franklin Morgan, Petty Officer, U. S. N. C. B., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark F. Morgan of Park Rapids, Minn., at the navy chapel, U. S. N. C. B. center at Port Hueneme, Calif. The rite was at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Navy Chaplain Merchon, Lt., U. S. N., officiated.

Given in marriage by her father in the double-ring ceremony, the bride wore an imported light brown tweed suit with matching hat and white accessories, a white rose corsage, and groom's gift of cultured pearls.

Her only attendant, Miss Marjetta Lowe, a college classmate, of Ventura, wore a gray wool suit with orchid accessories and yellow rose corsage.

Best man was Marion Clayton Fuller, U. S. N. C. B. and ushering were John Bailey, Jr., U. S. N. C. B. and Raymond C. Goldizen, brother of the bride, of Camarillo, Calif.

Miss Dorothy Goodman, also a classmate, sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

A reception was held at the Ted Russell Club House, after which the couple left for a honeymoon in southern California and San Francisco Bay area.

Mrs. Raymond Goldizen, sister-in-law of the bride, and Andrew F. Medve, U. S. N. C. B., had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Donald Hartwig, of Mountain View, Calif., cousin of the bride, served the wedding cake after the bride cut the first piece. Mrs. Dewey Akers, Brookings, poured and Mrs. John Langton, of Los Angeles, served punch.

Other out-of-town guests besides the bride's parents, were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. James and daughter, Darlene of Culver City, Calif., Mrs. Gretchen Squires of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Shoutlemire of Camarillo, Calif., Mrs. Maude Sager and Mr. and Mrs. Lowe of Ventura.

The young couple are at home to their friends at 82B Mira Loma Circle, Oxnard, Calif.

On The Main Drag

Mrs. Marian Fallert hunting "wild Indians."

That scrumptious angel food pie Leo Stevens makes.

C. F. Yahr serving coffee, hospitality and good nature.

Plenty of that soft white material for making snow-men.

A. J. Mato doing his Tuesday laundry.

Latest fashion trends - the red woolens.

Balky transportation.

"Slow pokes."

A competent young housekeeper of 14 years.

Wm. C. Cormack Passes With Stroke

William C. Cormack, resident of Brookings for the last couple of years, died here Tuesday, following a stroke, it was reported. Mrs. Cormack died late last fall, since which time Mr. Cormack apparently gave up his desire to live.

He was born in Scotland on March 16, 1881, and came here with his late wife from Detroit almost four years ago.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, Feb. 21, at Baptist Community church with Rev. John L. Mumbower officiating, under direction of Roeder Funeral home. Mrs. Osa Johnson will be soloist. Interment will be at William James Ward Memorial Park.

Roads Turned To City By Co. Court

There will be several streets in the incorporated area of the city which will not get any maintenance work for a time, or until the city has been given deed to these—such as Del Norte and Memory Lanes. Further work is to await such action, it was decided Tuesday night by the city council.

Following action by the county court, by resolution, deeding the county roads within the incorporated area of Brookings to the city, means that Brookings will have jurisdiction over those roads which the county had this right.

The resolution called for those streets over which the county had jurisdiction except Azalea Park road, which is under the control of the state highway department. So far the city has pledge about all its gas tax money in maintenance of the streets of the city—including Del Norte and Memory Lanes, which it finds, for the moment have never been deeded to city or county.

Along almost the entire length of both lanes, property owners, on both sides have given an additional five feet, so as to make them the standard 50-foot width.

Arnold Lane, in the west portion of town, must by residents adjacent to and using this lane, come to some agreement, and must get legal advice, engineering service, and then turn jurisdiction to the city.

Would Like Ocean Right-of-Way
Ira Orton, representing fishing interests which wish to move to this area, listened to the council discussion of the jurisdiction of streets, and in his plea for cooperation, stated that a huge industry could be located in this town if some road or street-way could be obtained by the city, to the ocean. No official action was taken by the council in this matter, until a definite plan will be offered later.

A good way to write is to send the Pilot to them.

Joe Endert Tells Of Indian 'Lore'

Joe Endert, of Crescent City, whose experience with Indians in the Klamath area years ago, has become legend, especially with Brookings Rotary club, gave his third talk to the club Tuesday noon. He said he felt more at home before the club than any he had previously talked before.

Displayed were a number of Indian handicrafts, such as fishing creel, a head-band used in a special dance, an Indian pipe, to smoke their own home-grown tobacco, and other items. Joe told something of the head-dress, how it was made from the woodpecker scalps, and the dance for which it was used.

Their tobacco is potent stuff, much too strong for white men—and two or three puffs were sufficient to stop any craving for tobacco for the moment. He also told how the Indians grew and "cured" their tobacco.

For benefit of the new members Joe re-told the story about the Indian village on Lake Earl, to which a San Francisco liquor salesman was invited, and how he and his "village cut-up" uncle had arranged with the Indians to "scare" the salesman. Modern pranksters would be put to shame by modern antics, Rotarians observe.

Joe promised to come again in the spring to relate other Indian stories, because "he had but put a scratch on the surface" of the fund he has in store.

School Clinic

A vaccination and inoculation clinic for immunization of smallpox and diphtheria will be held at the local school, Wednesday, Feb. 27, beginning at 10 a. m.

Local doctors will be in attendance. This clinic is held under the county health department, with Mrs. Dorothea Miller, county nurse, in charge. A charge of 25c will be made of each pupil.

Local News

T. S. (Sid) Abbott of Livermore, Calif., former resident of this area, was a week-end visitor here. Former Greyhound agent in Brookings, he and Mrs. Abbott are agents at Livermore now. He

Mrs. Chester Gragg returned home early this week, bringing her daughter, Patty Jo from the hospital where she has been under observation for a week. The little girl will return to the hospital Thursday for minor jaw surgery.

Bill Wridge is Portland at the moment, and may be reached by letter addressed to him at 1331 S. W. 12th St., Portland 1, according to a letter received by the Pilot this week.

The Paul Peterson family went to Medford over the week-end to visit friends and relatives. They reported snow over the mountains.