

SMITH RIVER

The pot luck supper, sponsored by the American Legion Auxilliary of Post 712, served at the Community hall, Feb. 12 was well attended. More than 100 turned out for this Americanization meeting. A reward of a Silver Star, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Darrow Nelson, of Smith River, parents of Sgt. Robert Nelson, of the army, who was killed in action, Feb. 4, 1951, near Sanjung.

Korea, when he approached a machine gun nest under heavy fire, was presented by Lt. Col. John F. Lendahl, 8th Army, who came from Eugene for the occasion.

Past Commander Roy Wilkinson presided at the program. He introduced the past commanders of Crescent City and Smith River posts.

Mrs. Lucille Lawn, president of the local unit, presented a corsage to Gold Star Mothers of the area: Mrs. Darrow Nelson, Mrs. Sabina Lovenberg and Mrs. Melita Kamph. The latter was not present.

Superior Judge Samuel Finley gave the address, speaking on Americanism. He urged every citizen to appoint himself a committee of one to uphold the high traditions of America to the fullest extent. Patriotic songs were sung by 8th graders of the local school. Post Commander Robert Owen extended appreciation to all for attendance.

Other Smith River Notes

The annual rummage sale and white elephant sale, sponsored by the Legion Auxilliary, will be held Tuesday, Feb. 26, at the local library. The sale will open at 10. Everyone who wishes to donate rummage goods or white elephants may get in contact with Mrs. Eunice Faris or Mrs. May Crook. The public is invited.

Voters in the Redwood Union

School District turned out Monday to vote a bond issue in that district, which carried 230 to 28 for a state-aid plan. The school board plans to go ahead now on building five new classrooms, a kindergarten, and a general purpose school room at Fort Dick, where a new school building was erected a year ago with five classrooms but found them inadequate to house children of that district.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Rhodus and two children left Saturday on a motor trip to Kentwood, La., to visit the parents of Mr. Rhodus. During his absence at the meat counter at Westbrook Market, Floyd Poindexter of Crescent City will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Young and son of Modesto, who spent several days visiting friends and attending business matters, returned to their home.

Jan Hight, who underwent appendectomy at Seaside hospital, has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hight, where she is convalescing.

Rev. C. P. Knutson, pastor of the local Methodist church, is spending the week at Fairfield, Calif., on business.
