

LEAP YEAR

Yes, girls, it's our chance! Once every four years we can step right out and get our man—if we're ready and willing. But who wants to step blindly into any deal? Let's look before we leap!

And boys, what about you? Do you want to dodge the issue and by next Leap Year be too antique even to have the appeal?

Better Not! Come one, come all, to the Grange Hall Friday at eight. There, the Azalea Garden Club plans to do its best for an evening of fun—prizes, surprises, eats, instruction if you want it. Last call for the girls and boys, you're safe after Friday, until 1956!

LEAP year descends upon us. Each girl now can have her chance;

And boys, to side-step a fuss, Please come Friday to the dance. You'll need to catch or dodge, 'tis true;

Eats appeal to everyone; And the music will entrance you Round and round till evenings' done.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold a social evening of cards and entertainment, the Pilot was told early this week.

P.-T. A. To Discuss Needs of Youth

Brookings-Harbor P.-T. A. is having a round-table discussion on the problems and needs of the youth of the community, Thursday, March 6, at 8 p. m. at the high school gym.

Three members of the junior class will discuss the youth's side of the question; Mrs. Zook, Carl Berger, Virgil Goldsberry will give the adult side, with questions and discussion from the audience.

Some of the topics to be discussed are: the new youth center organization, teen-age driving, delinquency, what causes friction in the home.

LOCAL NEWS

Quite a delegation of local fans have announced their plans to attend the county hoop tournament at Gold Beach Friday and Saturday nights. Brookings has hopes of going to the district.

Ed Boehnke, Eugene, filed on Wednesday, February 27, for delegate to the Republican National convention to be held in Chicago in July, from the fourth congressional district.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hurst, who went east a couple of weeks ago to visit their daughter in New York City, are expected home in a few days. Their daughter and her husband moved to New York City following their marriage last summer.

Dr. Roy M. White is at Los Angeles receiving instruction on a new electric cardiograph he has purchased for use in the Brookings Clinic. This instrument, he told the Pilot before leaving, is going to make the clinic one of best equipped anywhere.
