

SMITH RIVER

The pot luck supper sponsored by the Smith River Womens club was held Wednesday evening at the community hall. Mrs. Mabel Browne, chairman of the supper and program, reported that almost 100 were present at the family get-together. The long tables in the banquet room were decorated with red, white and blue crepe paper streamers and lace doilies and napkins carrying out the patriotic motif, featuring Washington's birthday.

The reception room was attractive with greenery and spring flowers. A daffodil arrangement centered the mantle board. Following the supper the group was seated in the reception room to enjoy the program.

Club president, Maude Luick spoke a few words of welcome. "God Bless America," opened the program, followed by the flag salute.

Mrs. Alyce Bolick showed colored slides, scenes of Mexico, the Redwood highway, lily fields of Palmer Westbrook and other interesting scenes.

Accordion selections were given by John Frost; duet, "America the Beautiful and Kentucky Babs, were sung by Opal Nelson and Arlene Miller; musical reading, "Are You Listening Joe," was given by Eunice Faris, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Helen Austin.

Lake Earl Grange met in regular session Thursday evening at the hall. The main event of the evening was initiation of 14 candidates in the first and second degrees. At the March 7, meeting the third and fourth degrees will be given a class of candidates with the ladies degree team putting on the ceremony. A pot luck supper will be served.

Smith River P.-T. A. sponsoring their annual Smorgasbord, to held Saturday, March 15, at the community hall, promises to be quite an event. The committee is planning to take care of 500 people, with plenty of amusement for old and young. There will be special guests to put on a demonstration in square dancing. The date is important to keep in mind, the committee urges.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bosch were their friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith

Mrs. James Cearley and her aunt, Mrs. Roy Vanderpool left Monday for Randall, Wash., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mr. Taylor Westbrook are spending a few days at San Francisco attending to business.

Local News

Mrs. J. E. Stevenson of Easy St. spent the past month visiting her son, Dr. Charles Newton, Lt. Col. who is stationed at Coronado naval base near San Diego. She left here Jan. 24, and stopped at San Francisco to visit Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, former next door neighbors. She also was a house guest of Frank George of Los Angeles. The Georges lived here for a time.

Friends of George Sutton, incumbent county assessor of this county, are not willing to let him withdraw from the race, and already have circulated petitions to have him put his name on the primary ballot. Several will be calling on him personally.
