

Harbor Club Held Visitors Day, Friday

Visitors Day was held Friday by Harbor Community club at its February meeting at Chetco Grange hall with 18 guests present, including members of the Winchuck Womens club.

Further details were discussed for the Antique and Hobby show to be held with the annual May Day tea, and it was suggested that an exhibition of needlework and embroidery should be included by all members and friends exhibiting samples of their handwork.

After the meeting Mrs. Guy Rice conducted a Dutch auction, Mrs. Donnelly entertained with two vocal solos and Mrs. Roy Hendry held an Easter bonnet contest with first prize being won by Mrs. Bessie Randall. Refreshments of pineapple-upside-down-cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Roy Becker, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Fred Gustafson.

Cliff House Was Crowded, Saturday

It is doubtful if any accurate check was taken Saturday evening of the grand opening of Don's Cliff House, Brookings ultra-modern entertainment and eating place, north of town.

Almost 400 cars were counted Saturday evening, each said to carry at least four people. However, many left when they saw that it would be some time before service could be expected.

Sunday night it was also said, saw quite a crowd present, as was also the case on Monday.

Mr. Gravley was in Medford on Tuesday and Wednesday so could not be reached for a statement.

Youth Honored At Friday 'Dance'

The young people of the area were honored at a Teen-Age party sponsored by Azalea Garden Club Friday evening at the Grange hall. About 60 boys and girls were presented with corsages and boutonniers made of colorful azaleas and heather, donated by Brookside Azalea and Bulb Farms, and assembled by members of the garden club. This added much to the festive spirit.

Mrs. Elsie Raveks, ably assisted by Mr. Raveks, was in charge of the affair. Mesdames Malone, Warren Smith and Harry Lockland, served on the committee to make this entertainment possible.

A door prize, won by Joane Renhard, was a beautiful driftwood pin. Lee Schley won the key ring. Refreshments of doughnuts and punch were served by the Garden Club.
