LANGLOIS

By Marian Brooks

County Fair Board Met

The Curry County Fair Board held its regular meeting Feb. 25, at 8 p. m. at the county agent's office, Gold Beach. Present were Leo Lucas, president; Ollie Ferguson, member; C. H. Brooks, member; Kenneth Thompson, fair manager; Billie Wade, secretary; Clifford Jenkins, county agent; Wanda Gossage, home demonstration agent; Wes Sibley; Henry Adolphson and a delegation of Chetco Wranglers.

The fair, this year, will be on August 22, 23 and 24. The Livestock association, working in conjunction with the fair board, will stage a fat lamb and wool show. One day will be devoted to a grand free barbecue. A ram sale will also be held.

Chetco Wranglers reported progress in preparing the arena show, which promises to be something of real interest.

Several changes are being made in the premium list, as it is found with the continued growth of the county and a wider range of crops being produced, it is necessary to make some revisions. The plans are to have the first copies of the premium list out in April. Several new advisory members and new assistants will appear in the new list. The next meeting will be held at the court house March 17 at 8 p. m.

Langlois Notes

Mrs. Eva Donaldson was ill on Thursday, so Mrs. Joe Everest substituted as teacher for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Aldropp went to Arcata, Calif., last week on a business trip.

Girl Scouts met Feb. 27 for their regular meeting. Mrs. Archie Aldropp is leader. They continued with their textile painting of original designs.

Miss Goldie Carroll of Springfield is the new teacher for the fifth and sixth grades. She began Thursday. Mrs. Ray Waterman carried on until she arrived.

A new 4-H club, Cooking 2, the Corny Cooks, was organized last week.

Mrs. Barbara Monroe returned from Cottage Grove where she attended the funeral of a nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Lex Cope have moved in to Langlois. They purchased the property of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jensen, Wilbur and Judy, left for Portland Friday. From there they will go to New York. George Steddum will care for the chores and the home while they are away.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks went to Grants Pass and Selma Thursday. While there they visited Mrs. Brooks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckles and her sisters and brothers.

Mrs. Tuckers' Brownies met Wednesday at the grade school gym. They had open house for mothers and friends. They presented a four-act play on the Brownie work, and most of the group received 2-year pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wells of Gold Beach and Janet Lewis of Springfield visited Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Skelton Menear moved back to Myrtle Point this week because one of the children could not live on the coast.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whalen went to Roseburg to meet Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cline who returned from southern California. Mrs. Cline is recovering from an operation and Mr. Cline went down to bring her home.
