In a letter to his mother, Jimmy Robinson Jr. who is with the army engineers in Korea, says he will be sent to Japan for a short rest period, before returning to the front. Jimmy has been stationed where he could watch the peace negotiators come and go during their long deliberations. Within this restricted area no guns are carried, but a mile away war goes on. Jimmy will soon accrue enough time to have a replacement and hopes to be sent to the states.

A most unusual original Schatz clock, made in the Black Forests of Germany, graces the window of the newly-opened Mincer's Jewelry. Finely balanced by swinging balls this clock needs only a winding about every 400 days. The precision hand-made clocks of this area are world famous. The well known cuckoo clocks are one of them. This particular clock is imported by the Remington-Rand Co.

The drawing for first, second and third prizes at Matot Co. will be held next Tuesday and the winners will be published in next week's issue. Rather than have one grand opening, Matot Company spread their open house over a month so that they might give more time to each visitor to the new shop. A large number of people have inspected the new quarters and later will have an opportunity to see the new department being added. First prize to be given in an electric coffee maker set; second prize is an automatic coffee maker and third is a deep-fat fryer, corn popper and chafing dish combined.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore returned home from a 10-day vacation trip to Portland, Tuesday. They will function as cook and assistant at White Rock dining room at the state line when it opens on April 1.

A report on the Cub Scout work from George Widney says the group is beginning to get organized under new den mothers and that Mrs. Widney will meet in turn with them to assist in work new to most of them. A need for uniforms and Cub supplies is acute and anyone having articles to donate may contact any adult officer or give, or sell directly to a Cub. New Scout supplies are carried by Phillips.

Contagious diseases are making life difficult for the youth of the area.; Ronald and Virginia Akers are ill with mumps. Others in all grades are said to be having sieges with chicken pox.

Next week, March 17 to 21, the schools will be closed for the annual spring vacation. This is held during this particular week in order that the teachers who wish to may attend the state convention of the Oregon Education Association at Portland. Many school districts of the state are holding their spring vacations next week instead of the week before Easter, as formerly.
