

On Main Street

The peeping of baby chicks—
Mr. Yahr's pets.

Mrs. Edwardson spreading a lot of sunshine.

The dignity of the municipal judge.

Rev. Jack Mumbower parking his mount.

Iris Kindel interested in omelet makings.

Tastefully arranged bouquets at Mincer's Jewelry.

Mrs. Dam trying to avoid be-

That efficient waitress, Larry Robinson in high gear.

A few minutes of that brilliant Vitamin D from on High—beamed at us.

That rabbit caught looking under a bush for Easter eggs.

Mrs. Mincer winding her clock —only once in 400 days—can she remember?

That red-head grounded by a double dose of mumps.

Garden Bulletin Is Available At Office

GOLD BEACH—Spring is garden time! Many farmers and other people of Curry county are planning to grow a larger vegetable garden this year.

The following bulletins are at the county agent's office: Garden Soil Management; Small Greenhouses for Amateur Gardeners; Growing Early Vegetables under Glass; Construction and Operation of the Cold Frames; Monthly Schedule of Suggested Operations In Vegetable Growing; Booster and Starter Solutions for Vegetable Transplants; Farm and Home Vegetable Gardens; Controlling Damping-off in Vegetable Seedlings; Vegetable Garden Insect Control.

These bulletins are free upon request says Clifford Jenkins, and should be helpful to those growing gardens this year.

All 4-H club members can help with the family budget too, by making this one of their 4-H projects of the year.

Local News

American Kitchens, the latest in convenience and attractiveness are reduced in price, according to an advertising placed by the Par Store, in the Goetz building. Mr.
Phetteplace will be glad to explain its features.

A small fire at Don's Cliff House aSturday evening caused plenty of excitement for a few moments, when the fire truck was called, but the fire was soon controlled. Precautions are made to reduce that future hazard.

Bob Smith and Retha Bridge of Brookings were married at the City hall, Crescent City, on Tuesday, Feb. 26. She is employed by the Nook Cafe.

Eisenhower Leads

If the vote in New Hampshire Tuesday is indicative of the feeling and trend of thinking among American people, then D. D. Ike Eisenhower, supreme commander of the European campaign in the last war, will be president of this nation, come next November.

On the Democratic side Kefauver holds a decided edge over Truman, which also shows the trend against the present administration.

The primaries in Oregon are awaited with some concern by the aspirants for the presidency.
While too early to make many predictions, it is safe to assume that general change is in the making right now.

People have become more and more conscious lately when the prices and taxes have taken all the earnings of almost every person, regardless of what his salary or income may be. A halt seems certain to be called before another administration is seated.
