

Local News

Bob Johnson returned to his home here last Thursday after a stay in the Gold Beach hospital. Earl Munson is feeling quite discouraged about trying to keep a pet dog. Last week his toy-shepherd was taken to the Eureka pet hospital, to attempt to counter-act poisoning. The pet died. This is the second dog that the Munsons have lost in the last month. W. D. Sibley, of Typo-print, of Gold Beach, was a business caller here the first of the week to use the Pilot press to print the primary ballots for Curry county. Several seniors of Brookings high school plan to make the trip to Corvallis this week-end to be present at "Senior Visitation week-end." Some plan to enroll there next fall. Fred Herberg, of Harbor Lumber Company, was hit on the right arm last Wednesday, breaking it at the elbow. He was taken to Seaside hospital where he may have to undergo surgery to reduce the fracture, since it is in the elbow joint and difficult to set correctly with a cast.

Jack Ketterer of Los Angeles, brother-in-law of O. D. Arp, is building a home in the Dawson tract, north of town. Mrs. Ketterer is expected to come north shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hibbard and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sandbo left Thursday morning for the Bay area on a combined business and pleasure trip.

The Town House, on the highway north of town, its getting its grounds ready for landscaping. With the redwood exterior and spring green trim, will be a most attractive place for eating. Town House patterned paper and mahogany paneling to grace the interior walls. Yellow and green tables and chairs are placed to allow a view of the ocean, while a large fireplace makes a cozy seating for entertainment of friends. High chairs are provided for the little tykes. Dave Pillars does the barbecuing in the old southern fashion in a pit over alderwood. Barbecue sauce originated in Georgia and has been handed down through the years from father to son. Parking space is now being finished to accommodate a large number of cars at the same time.

SUMMONS

No. 2310

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Curry.

Homer Kessler, doing business under the assumed name of Curry County Lumber Co., Plaintiff, versus

B. Carl Class and Edna Glass, husband and wife, and G. C. Glass and Jane Doe Glass, husband and wife, Defendants.

To B. Carl Class and Edna Glass, husband and wife, and G. C. Glass and Jane Doe Glass, husband and wife;

In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action at law within ten days from the date of service of this Summons upon you if served within this County; or if served within any other County of this State, then within twenty days from the date of the service of this Summons upon you; and if served upon you in any State of the United States other than the State of Oregon, then within four (4) weeks after the date of such service; and if you fail to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, succinctly; plaintiff will take judgment against you in the sum of Eight Hundred and Forty-eight and 85/100 ($848.85) Dollars; for interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from February 19, 1952, and for his costs and disbursements herein incurred and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and just.

This summons is published by order of Hon. Dal M. King, Circuit Judge of the State of Oregon for the Second Judicial District, which order was made and entered on the 4th day of April, 1952, directing publication of this summons once each week for four successive weeks in the Brookings-Harbor Pilot, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the City of Brookings, Curry County, State of Oregon. Date of first publication April 10, 1952. Date of last publication, May 8, 1952.
