Card Party, Sat.

An enjoyable evening of cards took place at the Grange hall, Saturday evening, when the last of a series of card parties was held. Both canasta and pinochle were played with prizes going to Anna Waldien and David Eickhoff for high in canasta and to Marian Lamm and J. S. Clendenin for low; in Pinochle the high prizes were won by Mrs. Mete Myers and Fred Gustafson, and low by Kathryn Reekman and Glen Simpson. Emma Waldine also took home the door prize. It is planned to have the parties start again in the fall.

Local News

Mrs. Kenneth Nikrent arrived recently from Los Angeles where she spent the winter and is now at her home on the Winchuck. While her plans are indefinite, she expects to remain here for several weeks at last.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally Darling visited a brother Merle Darling, who was in port at Coos Bay over the week-end. Merle is attached to a shipping company under contract to the government and has been in the Korean area lately. Mrs. Lloyd Moore, mother of Wally and Merle, and Mr. Moore also went to Coos Bay to see her son.

Miss Patsy Cagley is visiting her sister, Jerry Lee, and her aunts, Bernadine Steele and Bertha Beers this week. She arrived from Denver the first of the week.

J. C. Boyd left recently for his home in Oklahoma after spending several months here with his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Carson and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hanscam took a several days trip to Portland last week, during which Mrs. Hanscam had a periodical checkup on her eyes. They also took in two baseball games and a prize fight while in the city.

Everett Jordan was able to return home the first of the week after undergoing a major operation at the Curry General hospital last week.
