

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Straley returned home Sunday after spending a week at Medford where Mrs. Straley was given medical attention.

Dallas Crawford left Monday for Cherieville where he will be employed.

Pete Stoller left for Seattle recently on his way to Alaska where he plans to work. He has spent several summers in Alaska on different works.

Reports come from Parker's Anchorage at the Chetco River Bridge telling of good catches of nice sized trout in the lower part of the river. Since the highway has been changed between Harbor and Brookings, it is now easy to drive to Parker's while in the past the timid driver thought twice before venturing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Payne and family spent the week-end visiting relatives in this area. They are now living at Langlois.

Wesley Smith returned home Monday after being gone a week during which time he visited at LaGrande, Everett, Portland and Gold Beach.

Miss Floy Smalling of Eugene is visiting this week with Miss Mary Montgomery. The two young ladies went through nurse training together, and Miss Smalling is leaving soon for the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lopez and family have moved from the Van Pelt house south of Harbor to a place a couple of miles up the south bank of the Chetco.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lee, former residents, have returned to Harbor for the present and are making their home at Hall's Auto Motor court.

Next meeting of Curry County Pomona Grange will be held at Chetco Grange hall, Saturday, May 10. The morning meeting starts at 11, with a pot luck dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Young Monday. The children were rosy-effects of Sunday's trip to Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan of Santa Cruz, Calif., and former residents of Brookings, are spending the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Harris, former owners of the Goetz Cottages and Kruger building, were salling on old-timers locally last week. They live at Santa Rosa.

Mayor and Mrs. Robert Dimmick entertained at dinner Mondays in honor of Orville E. Dimmick, who was celebrating his birthday. Twelve members of the family gathered to wish him "happy returns."

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Young were expected home Wednesday from a two-weeks visit with her twin-sister at Waltheria, Calif., and mother, whose home is at Saugus. This is the first vacation the Youngs have had together since coming to Brookings. Mrs. C. W. Means is in charge of the hotel.

Mrs. Blair Gould, Norris Kemp and George Hassett went to Gold Beach Monday to serve on the jury at spring term of court.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wallace went to Grants Pass Sunday to spend the day with the Armstrongs, parents of Mrs. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Woodriff are parents of an eight-pound, fifteen ounce son, born at Seaside Hospital, April 18. They have named the young man Alan Wm. He is their second son, and fifth child.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Guillian of Brookings a daughter, Sharon Louise, 8 lbs., 2 oz., On April 12, at Brookings Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bittick of Harbor are parents of a 6-lb. 12 1/2 oz. daughter, born April 24, at Brookings Clinic. The little miss has been named Linda Anne.

Mrs. Juanita Anderson is new clerk at Gould's Shoe Store.

In 1857 over $20,000,000 in gold came from the deposits in the Coast, Sept. 26, 1936, spread more rapidly than any other known fire. The area covered with Irish Furze (gorse) ubrned rapidly.

AT THE SIGN OF THE GOLDEN GOAT

THE CHETCO INN

Built in 1914, the CHETCO INN is an old landmark, but never was so well equipped to serve BROOKINGS as now. Meetings, public and private, are held in its lobby and amusement room. Weddings take place before its great fireplace in the lobby. Wedding receptions are held in its dining room. Parties are always hospitably entertained.

DINING ROOM and UNSURPASSED FOOD — ROOMS with LUXURIOUS beds. Rates for Rooms from $3.00 to $6.00. Dinners, five courses, from $1.50.

Get acquainted with an institution which exists to Serve Brookings!

Brookings Plywood Corporation, Its Stockholders and Employees

Are happy to be a part of the Fastest Growing Community of Oregon

