

34½ 4-H S. S. S. Pledged In County

34½ 4-H summer school scholarships have been pledged by donors in Curry county this year. Donors are: Sears Roebuck Foundation, J. C. Penney Co., Pomona Grange and Henry Adolphson, the Ophir Grange, Albert Joy, Chet-co Grange, Archie Hendricks, P. W. Davis, Pete Lesmeister, Curry County Lumber Co., Dewey Akers, Warren Smith, Dimmick Bros., Langlois Extension Unit, Curry County Health Association,

Gold Beach Women's Club, Young Homemakers, Bank of Bandon, Dick Barklow, John Donaldson, Azalea Garden Club, the Sixes Grange, Brookings Chamber of Commerce, Gold Beach P.-T. A., Floras Willow club, Langlois P.-T. A., Gold Beach Garden Club.

This is not quite enough scholarships to fill the quota established for Curry County by the State 4-H club office. If there are any other organizations or individuals wishing to provide one or more scholarships they may get in touch with the county extension office.

The 4-H scholarship committee making the awards this year are: Henry Adolphson, Albert Joy, Ethel Andrieff, Lillian Zumpfe, Ann Porisch, Roberta Whereat, Irene Brown and the extension agents. These will meet at the county extension office Thursday, May 15 to select the 4-H club members who are to receive the scholarships this year. The days of this red-letter event are June 17 to 27.
