

Evangelists Book Local Meeting

"The Musical Places," consisting of Lester and Grace Place, musical evangelists of Spring City, Pa., will conduct two services at Chetco Grange, Thursday evening, May 15 at 8:00 o'clock.

Services will convene with an inspirational song service led by Lester G. Place and his wife, Grace, accompanying at the piano and followed by familiar hymns of the church played upon their marimba, musical bells, saxophone and antique triple octave chimes and closing with the gospel message by Evangelist Lester Place.

This nationally-known young couple has conducted campaigns in 42 states and five provinces in Canada in various churches, Bible conferences, high schools, colleges, radio and television programs. Just recently, they appeared as guests on the Christian telecast, "Youth on the March" which is seen coast to coast over the ABC network under leadership of Rev. Percy Crawford of Philadelphia. Prior to their graduation from the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, they were associated with Percy Crawford and his radio work.

In addition to producing two 16mm sound films the Places have made five recordings. Both of these are seen and heard in the states and Canada and foreign fields.

The public is cordially invited to attend this inspiring and uplifting service. The Places are coming directly to Brookings from Salem, sponsored by the Brookings-Harbor Youth for Christ.

ROD MCKENZIE

FOR JOINT REPRESENTATIVE

From Coos and Curry Counties

Rod McKenzie is a young married man with an open mind and a vital interest in Coos and Curry Counties. He is president of the Curry County Livestock Association, a graduate of Oregon State College, and an ex-marine sergeant, World War 2. We know that he will work for the best interest of the people of Coos and Curry Counties.

We who know Rod, know him to be capable and well qualified for this position. We urge those of you who know him to tell your neighbors—and those of you who don't ask your neighbors!
