

LANGLOIS

By Marion Brooks

Mrs. Joe Oscar is leaving for Gold Beach Tuesday. After a few days there she will leave for the east where she will visit old acquaintances for about a month.

Mrs. Dolores Cassaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Porter, went with them to Portland recently. From there they plan to go to Idaho for a visit. They will be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monroe went to Springfield, bringing Mrs. Monroe's parents home with them for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Guerin went to Montague, Calif., recently to visit their son-in-law and daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doane are parents of a son.

Several members of the Sixes Grange spent Saturday at Brookings, attending Pomona Grange. Several of the candidates for the county offices were presented by the master and allowed to speak a few moments.

Carlton Brown, manager of the Grange Life Insurance in Oregon, was present and spoke on Grange insurance. The matter of a road program for the county is uppermost in Grangers' minds and more road reports were brought before the Grange and discussed. July meeting of Pomona Grange will be at Sixes. Sixes Grange exemplified the fifth and sixth degrees and Sixes Juveniles put on the "Good of the Order" for which they were recently judged and received a score of 98%.

Sixes Garden Club met at the Teonta Hall home Friday afternoon. General discussion of gladioli and dahlias was held. Ten were present. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests at the R. K. Erwin home at Denmark this week were Mrs. Ethel Harvey of Ashland, Eugene Scofield of Gardner and Mr. Mrs. J. W. Thornburg and son of Coos Bay.

Sixes Grange met in regular session Saturday evening. Carlton Brown of West Salem Grange and manager of Grange Life Insurance in Oregon, was present. Three new members were given the first and second degrees. Clarence Brooks announced the council equalization board meeting will start Monday, May 12. Mr. Brown spoke of the early history on which the ritualistic work of the Grange was based. He also spoke on Grange Life insurance. Next regular meeting will be pot luck for refreshments. Charles Brooks made a talk on the Coos-Curry Electric Co-operative.

Jeanette and Ethelene Thompson were Coquille visitors Saturday to see about Jeanette's graduation needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Denmark were at Coos Bay Saturday and Wednesday and Thursday they went to Newport on an anniversary trip.

Arlene Kerber and Joan Cox went with Pete Aldrop to the Spring Festival where they modeled 4-H dresses.

Sterling Viney, cousin of Tronie Morris of Sixes, of Sparks, Nev., is making his home with the Morris family at present. He spent two years in Korea and one year in Japan, and has seen plenty of action with the army engineers.

The Grange HEC will meet at Docia Sweet's home, May 15. The members and friends are urged to be present and in mood for work.

Floras Willow Club will meet Many 22 at Roberta Whereat's home. This is an important meeting and all members are urged to be present. It is election of officers and a good turnout is needed to insure choice.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kane of Medford were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kane at Langlois.

Docia Sweet spent Thursday night with Alta Larson at Coos Bay. That evening they attended Summer Grange in interest of Grange Life Insurance. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Sweet attended the Bandon Grange.

Sixes Grange wishes to thank their many friends who turned out to patronize their Mother's Day dinner. It was a success and Grangers are happy over the outcome.

Leo Lucas was a visitor at the Sixes Grange Saturday night, spending the night at the Walter Slocum home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith of Monteson, Wash., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thetford. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Thetford are sisters. R. L. Thetford spent four days at Gold Beach last week with an evaluation committee from the state department of education. They evaluated Gold Beach high.
