

LaVerne Landauer
Won Essay Contest

Miss LaVerne Landauer was the first place winner in the essay contest on the subject of "Americanism," sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary, among the students of Brookings High, and Miss Georgia Pickens placed second. Miss Landauer's essay has been sent to be judged in the state finals, with the state winner to compete in the nationals. Mrs. Bernadine Steele was in charge of the contest and at the meeting of the Auxiliary last Wednesday, she presented a $5 check to Miss Landauer and $2.50 check to Miss Pickens, prizes from the local unit.

Local News

With a little co-operation on the part of the counting boards of the county, W. D. Sibley of Gold Beach, hopes to have a complete election return in the next issue of the Pilot. The Pilot will seek the count from both the local precincts for phoning to Gold Beach, and in return get the returns from there.

The Matot Company is adding to its already varied stock, a complete line of electrical fixtures, of large selection.

The high school faculty honored the graduating class with a senior breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Doherty, Sunday morning before church.

Chef Adrian and Joseph Taylor, of the Chetco Inn were surprised by a large number of visitors who arrived for dinner after the Prentice Accordion band of Medford had left for home Sunday night. Chef Adrian was able to handle the culinary wants, sans music, for the time.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Jones who went to Portland last Friday, are expected home today.

Congratulations

We, the undersigned, wish to publicly congratulate Oregon State Bank for coming to Brookings to serve a long-felt need to the area, and to extend to your corporation, its officers and directors, the hand of fellowship. We have a big job to do in this area, which will take the united support of every person in the community. We hope the friendship shown you on the opening day will extend on through the years, and that you will be glad for having come here:
