

Local News

Word reaches the Pilot that the Richard Harmers, of Harbor, have left Continental Europe and are now in England where they will spend some months with his relatives. They have spent the time since the beginning of the year in several European countries, and will have an interesting tale to relate to friends on their return home this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Zirbel have leased their home on Easy Street to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wallen of Westport, Wash., and have departed to spend the summer in Montana with her sister. They may continue on to Marshalltown, Iowa to visit the old home of Mr. Zirbel. The trip was in hopes of benefitting Mrs. Zirbel's health

Mrs. Walter Biddle of 4-Biddles Motel, south of Harbor, will enter Seaside hospital Thursday for surgery, a patient of Dr. Ronniger.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Anderson, a daughter, Deborah Kay, who weighed 6 lbs. 2oz., Tuesday at 4:30 a. m. at Seaside Hospital.

Otis Smith of Harbor who had been fishing near Harris beach last week, lost his fishing rod and reel, valued at $65 on his way back to town. Someone must've found it by the roadside.

William Brenner of The Dalles, Ore., who is building the modern motel just west of the Town-House Barbecue, has the terrace well under way for the 40-units to be finished immediately for summer occupancy. They will be of brick veneer and each terrace will allow view of the coast. The 300-foot frontage on Highway 101 is part of the J. T. Jacobs property, lately acquired by Brenner.

Polls at the primaries, Friday, will be open on standard time, it mus be remembered. 8:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m., or 9-9 by the daylight savings time. Those in the Brookings precinct will vote at the IOOF hall, and those of the Chetco precinct at the Grange hall.

The Nayborhill Club met at the home of Mrs. Muriel Gragg Wednesday, May 7. Ten members were present. Mrs. Florence Zinzer was a guest for the afternoon. Luncheon was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Weaver, May 21.

For that graduate next week—have you thought about a new portable Smith-Corona typewriter? At the Pilot office.
