

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snyder and Mrs. Charlton of Ukiah, Calif., were week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Mumbower, at the parsonage. They brought Mrs. Mumbower's mother with them. Miss LaVaughan Wagner, teacher in the local school, will leave Saturday for her parents home at Roseburg. She will attend summer school at Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland. She makes her home with Mrs. Eugene Ackley on Pioneer Road. Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Mumbower and Sharon leave Sunday for a vacation that will take them to Oregon Caves, Crater Lake and other points. Margaret's Beauty shop will be closed Friday and Saturday of this week to take advantage of the double holiday.

Mrs. George Widney and son, Bobby, will go to Portland immediately after closing of school. Bobby will be fitted with a larger plastic eye. Mrs. Raymond Tuerk of Klamath Falls visited Brookings last Wednesday. She had just visited her small ranch near Sterling mine, at Jacksonville where she found the caretaker, Frank Wanek, had shot himself. She and a friend got him to hospital where he died in a few hours. Mrs. Tuerk will be remembered as Mrs. Ben McKernan, former resident of Brookings. Her husband died recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beem and son, Lester, of Villah, Wash., surprised his brother Cliff, and family by coming for an unexpected visit, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Birst, of the Black Ball line, Seattle, were brief callers here en route home after a month's trip to Southern California, promoting travel on Hwy. 101. Mrs. E. Huntley of Smith River won the steam iron given by the Matot Co. as prize for being a caller between April 18 and May 18. An electric clock will be given as a door prize, June 30. Following the first show at the Pine Cone Saturday night, Joan Vincent will dance and present they will attend the graduation of their son, Gene, June 20. Gene has been taking special training in public relations with the air corps. Gene will wed Juanit Smith of Sandy, Ore., June 22. Both are graduates of University of Oregon. Gene, who will be commissioned, will be honored with a military wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence of Medford, their son and daughter-in-law, spent the past week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Art Bollinger. A son, Art Jr., also came from Silverton, Friday, returning home, Sunday. Anyone who has calla lilies to help with the festival decorations please contact Eva Lea Long at Lesmeister's office, phone 2271 or Mrs. Knox, phone 1945.
