

Local News Happenings About Folks You Know

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sandbo and W. W. Smith made a trip to San Jose last week, that city being the former home of the Sandbos.

Mrs. Kay Sandstrom enjoyed a week-end visit from her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Ackerman and two daughters of Humboldt county. The older daughter has been attending Laurelwood Academy and as the school year was over, met her mother here, to return home.

Mrs. Rose Poole returned to her home on the bluff above the beach south of Harbor, Sunday. She has spent the last four months with her daughter and family at Klamath Falls. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stoner and a friend, Mrs. Vera Powell, came over with her to spend the week-end.

Clarke Kemske, son of Mrs. S. N. Fischer, arrived at San Francisco Friday after spending the last three years with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Kemske, at Yokohama, Japan. He has enlisted in the navy air corps and will report for duty after a month's visit with his family.

Mrs. Victor Reynolds arrived home the latter part of the week after undergoing treatment for her injured knee, at Los Angeles for nearly a month. She reports that she can get along without a cane now, but must be careful of it and continue with infra-red heat treatments.

W. W. Smith took A. C. Thompson and Will McVay to Covelo, Calif., Friday, to attend the funeral of Fred Vincent, son of Mrs. Lahra Vincent of Harbor. Mr. Vincent lived for ten days in the hospital at Willets following a burn after a gasoline explosion. Mrs. Vincent and her sister, Mrs. Thompson, were physically unable to make the trip to Covelo.

Junior Hanscam was surprised by his co-workers at the Harbor Store last Wednesday night, the occasion being his birthday. An evening of fun and games was enjoyed.

There will be no mail service this Friday as Memorial Day is a government and state holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr will show pictures of their recent extended trip at the Community church, Sunday night, June 1. They visited the Holy Land, and will tell about interesting incidents, and history, as the pictures reveal the places they saw. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Ackley left Monday for Eureka and San Francisco where he has matters pending before the court. He will be back at his office June 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Phillips Jr. of Tillamook, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Phillips of Phillips Dad & Lad Shop, visited here last week.

L. A. Harvey, of Brookings, is at Good Samaritan Hospital, at Portland, and cards from his acquaintances and friend will reach him there. Mrs. Harvey went to Portland last week to be with him.

Mrs. Edith Moore and Miss Kathleen Steeves left Saturday morning for a two-week's stay at San Francisco.

Norma Felipe will close her beauty shop Friday and Saturday of this week, to enjoy Memorial Day and the Azalea Festival.

Jim Yelton is putting finishing touches on his Record & Art Shop interior this week and will be open next week in the new building, next to Leonard's Real Estate agency.
