

Pauline Tygart To Head Rebekahs

At the last meeting of Topaz Rebekah lodge, Pauline Tygart was elected Noble Grand for the next six months. Other officers elected at the same time were Cleo Craig, vice-Grand; Opal La-Brook, recording secretary, Irene Koeller, treasurer, Harriet Baker is the present Noble Grand.

Visitors for the evening were Oleta Walker, noble grand of the Gold Beach lodge, Rita Ganong, also of the Gold Beach lodge. Verna Mendenhall gave a report of the Rebekah Assembly which she attended at Salem, and at which she was given the Degree of Chivaryl for outstanding work in the lodge and community. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Morgan also spoke of the Assembly and Grand Lodge.

Plans were discussed for district convention to be held here on June 28 with the President of the Rebekahs Assembly as honored guest. Ethel Frazier is the chairman for the convention.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments being served by a committee.

LOCAL NEWS

Relatives have received word from Lt. Louise Baumgartner, that after a leisurely trip across Asia and Europe, she is now at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Baumgartner Sr. of Brookings, and spent many months at the front lines in Korea caring for the wounded. (A series of letters appears elsewhere in this issue).

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiling and her mother, Mrs. George Anderson of Grants Pass, spent a recent week-end here visiting relatives, and enjoying the Azalea Festival.

Mrs. Guy Rice left Tuesday for Stanford University to visit her daughter, Miss Nancy Stone, who is a member of this year's graduating class. The commencement will be held Sunday, June 15.

Monday, Mrs. Gladys Payne and her pupils of Carpenterville, enjoyed a trip into Humboldt county where they visited the Prairie Creek Fish hatchery. They ate dinner where they could watch the elk herd, and on their return trip took in the aquarium at Crescent City. Mrs. Payne is retiring from teaching with this term. She is one of the long-time teachers in the county coming here soon after the turn of the century, being followed here later by the rest of her family, the late Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Milles and children.

Carrol Reekman came from Eugene over Memorial day to visit his mother. His brother, Raymond, came from Alameda and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barton and two children of Crescent City also were week-end visitors at the same home. Raymond's twin, Bob, has now arrived at Erding, Germany, where he expects to be stationed for the next couple of years with the air force. Carrol will graduate from University of Oregon, soon.

Albert K. Weisendanger, executive secretary of Keep Oregon Green, will be featured at the June meeting of Brookings chamber of commerce, June 24, and will show an hour of pictures, and slides on his work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Steele of Lancaster, Calif. have been visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nelson. Other visitors at the same home are Mrs. Nelson's aunt and son, Mrs. J. N. Beaver and daughter of Hollywood.

In a letter to the Pilot from Mrs. Norine Harvey, who is with her husband, L. A. Harvey, at Portland, stated that Lou expected to undergo surgery this week at Good Samaritan hospital. The Harveys will return to Brookings as soon as Mr. Harvey will be permitted to travel.

Send your child to Vacation Bible school, June 9 to 20. Starts Monday, runs 9 a. m. to noon. Open to all creeds from 4½ to 14 years. Registration will be on Saturday, 2 to 4 p. m. Give your child a chance at the spiritual side of life.—Jeannette Pierce, S. S. Sup.t
