

Brookings-Harbor Pilot

Nowhere A Finer Climate - Nowhere a Finer Community

Volume Seven, Number Fifteen.

BROOKINGS, CURRY COUNTY, OREGON

Thursday, June 12, 1952

REDFIELDS DESCRIBE TRIP TO EAST HAWAII CERTAINLY ENCHANTING

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Redfield, to please their friends, offered to write a few lines about their recent trip to the Orient. It follows:

Preceding our trip, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moss gave us an elaborate bon voyage buffet dinner. This affair would take a column to describe. The day of our departure Ben Turner picked us up about 6:30 a. m., Monday April 7, and drove to Winglers for breakfast before leaving for San Francisco. We left our dog at Willets with mother's sister. In San Francisco we did a little shopping and then picked up our visas for the Philippines. We took some colored pictures of the flower show at Macy's before we sailed.

Our first night out, we had a magnificent steak dinner, beautifully served. After the dinner we were given choice of two shows, one in the main lounge and the other in the Marine room. Lyle began getting sick and had to go to his state-room. The ship was in rough seas and was rolling. In the night we had quite a storm which turned things topsy-turvy in the state-room, and broke a lot of dishes aboard ship.

Nearing Honolulu the sea quieted down and the weather began warming up, and the ship began serving outside deck buffet luncheons, and people began swimming and deck games. On the fifth day at 8 a. m. we landed in Hawaii under the shadow of Aloha tower. On the dock the Hawaiian band and singers were there as well as hundreds of people with their arms full of lei. We were presented with two of these orchid lei each. On landing we were escorted to an awaiting car and went sight-seeing.

We learned that Hawaii was not mis-named when they call it "The Paradise of the Blue Pacific." It is truly that. We drove through Honolulu's shopping center, through their fish market, by the world-famous Banyan Tree, with its limbs taking root in the earth again.

Continued on Page Three

Heart Attack Fatal To H. A. Sanders, Friday Afternoon

Homer A. (Sandy) Sanders Jr., owner of White Rock Cottage and Lounge, as well as other interests at Astoria, passed away suddenly last Friday afternoon at his home at White Rock of a heart attack. Surviving are his widow, Jeanie, and a 2-months-old daughter; mother, Mrs. H. A. Sanders Sr. of Lebanon; brother, Don of White Rock and two sisters, Mrs. Helen Sitton of Tangent, Ore., and Mrs. Pauline Sweeney of Allentown, Pa.

He was born July 23, 1911 in South Dakota. Funeral services were held Monday at Lebanon, where his mother resides. An older daughter, Mollie Gae Sanders, of Holloywood, also survives.

Popular among all who knew him, Sandy, as he was familiarly known, took an active part in the affairs of the tourist trade along Highway 101, as he served as the president of the group two years ago. With his interests at Astoria he flew his own airplane much of the time, going between here and Astoria.

He also was a trap-shooter of considerable fame, and took part in all local shoots of the Rod and Gun Club. He also worked tirelessly to bring about the air-strip near his place at the state line.

Vernon Goldizen Home For Summer

Vernon Goldizen, graduate in biology at University of New Mexico, June 2, arrived home Sunday with his mother, Mrs. C. N. Goldizen, to spend the summer here.

He has a graduate assistantship at the same school next year and will return to work toward his master's degree.

He won Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Sigma honors while attending the university, the latter for being the outstanding undergraduate.

Is Graduating

Carroll E. Reekman is a member of this year's graduating class at the University of Oregon and will receive his degree at the commencement ceremonies to be held at McArthur Court, Eugene, on June 15.

Carroll, native of Harbor, was graduated from Brookings High with the class of 1946, after which he enlisted in the army for two years, spending most of the time with the Army of Occupation, in Japan.

Carroll, has taken up accounting at the University, and has successfully passed the civil service examinations given by the state, but is not certain as yet to where he will be employed after graduation. He is son of Kathryn Reekman, assistant postmaster at Harbor.

Traps Being Added

Chetco Rod & Gun Club announces that completion is at hand on two additional traps at the club grounds on Benham lane. This news should gladden hearts of trap-shooting enthusiasts of both Curry and Del Norte counties since this will triple present facilities and will provide a smooth operation and almost eliminate a turn to shoot. The new trap houses and walks are of solid concrete, and the equipment is new. The grounds are being leveled in preparation for the several big shoots that the club is planning for this summer and fall.

Also planned soon is a small-bore rifle range, skeet traps and an archery range.

Won Essay Contest

LANGLOIS—Mary Donaldson, of Denmark, members of Sixes Grange, submitted the winning essay of the state on the subject of soil conservation for abundant living. This is an annual contest conducted jointly by the national Grange and American Plant Food Council.

Mary's essay was chosen winner from 48 entries from all over the state. She will receive a cash prize of $100 and her essay is now entered in the competition for national awards. The essay was published in the June 5 issue of Oregon Grange Bulletin.

Buys Cope Bull

LANGLOIS—Ralph Cope has announced the sale of a young herd sire to Lloyd Johnson of New Plymouth, Idaho, manager of a breeding association. The bull will be used by this group. This is the second herd sire that Mr. Johnston has purchased from the Cope ranch for his association.

This bull is sired by Lilac Sir Challenger and out of a medal of merit daughter of Silken Ruby's Lad.

Medford Took Two From Beavers, Sun.

The trip to Medford over the week-end still left the Brookings Beavers looking for their first win in Southwestern Oregon league play. The Cheney Studs captured both games, winning Saturday night in a well-played tilt, by a 6 to 3 score and drubbing the Beavers 14 to 3 Sunday afternoon.

Bob Astin, pitching his last game during his Marine leave, allowed the Studs only seven hits but five of these were bunched in the fourth and seventh innings to account for the major damage. The Beavers gathered nine hits off the offerings of veteran hurler Paul Gehrman and although there were four singles in the eighth only two runs scored.

Medford put the Sunday affair on ice in a hurry, scoring nine unearned runs in the first two innings on five Beaver errors and wildness on the part of starting pitcher Chuck Tykeson. Brookings was held to seven hits in this fray by Derald Wooten, who was being watched by two big league scouts.

Frank Burdel got three of these blows, including a home run over the right-field wall.

Frank Burdell, Bill Wallace and Phil Parsons each had two hits in the Saturday game.

The Beavers travel to Drain this coming week-end for two games against Roy Helsler's strong Black Sox. Brookings should be somewhat strengthened by the addition of the two new pitchers, Vic Lapiner of U. S. C., Los Angeles, and Jim Nierman, left hander of Oregon State College.

Short Score, first game:
Brookings000 001 020—3 9 2
Medford100 300 20x—6 7 2
Astin and Peterson; Gehrman and Roelandt.

Short Schore, second game:
Brookings000 101 010—3 7 7
Medford540 012 20x—14 11 1
Tykeson, Maciel (6) and Peterson; Wooten and Roelandt.

Precipitation Light

Only .1 of an inch of rain fell Wednesday morning, and indications point to little moisture in prospect immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wright are visiting in the Grays Harbor area, in Washington. It was there about 40 years ago, that they lived at the time of their marriage. They will also visit other points of interest before returning.

Klamath Man Was Rotary Speaker At Tuesday Meeting

Cy Lubraska, of Klamath, Calif. whose avocation is helping make the Klamath Sports Carnival each year a success, financially and otherwise, was speaker at Rotary Tuesday noon, telling of the big problems that city had and how these were overcome.

"It is too bad that your lily parade and our sports carnival come on the same day. There are people in Klamath who want to see your parade, and no doubt a number of your people wish to witness the carnival at Klamath.

"Four years ago, when we began the Sports Carnival, we were beset with many headaches, and a number of these headaches are still with us. It takes plenty of money to attract people, and that has been one of our problems, but each year our net worth has been raised until the association now has a net worth of more than $30,000.

"Those boat races from Yreka to Klamath now are attracting a lot of attention from people all over the world. That race, while so little of it is actually seen, is possibly the biggest drawing card we have to offer. The same may be made true of the Lily Parade."

He showed pictures of the race held last year, taken by a man from Argentina, who was able to follow more than half of the entire course, and at the finish. The Klamath group obtained the film and had a re-print made.

E. L. Morton New Member
E. L. Morton, manager of Oregon State Bank, twice before a Rotarian, at Newberg and Hood River, was admitted as member at the Tuesday meeting. Ed McClain, who had also been voted to membership, was unable to return from Albany in time for the meeting.

To Gold Beach Thursday.
In following out a plan of inter-club service, the local club is to stage the program for the Gold Beach club, Thursday evening at the Youth Center at the Episcopal church. G. W. Milford will be principal speaker. It is a ladies night and about half the local club membership will be present with their wives.

Return Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dimmick and sons, Bobbie and Eddie, returned Monday evening from a three-week's vacation trip. Going north to Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., they traveled to Calgary and Banff and Lake Louise, the much advertised Canadian vacation area. Returning they went to Spokane and to Hayward where they enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Dimmick's family. They are now anxiously awaiting development of movie film taken when on the journey.

Your buyers read the class ads—use them next week!