Couple Married at Church

Harold Albert Rapraeger and Miss Kieva Mae Moncur, both of Corvallis, Ore., were married at a single ring ceremony, at 11 a. m., July 8. The bride wore a tailored suit of powder blue and white accessories. Attendants were the brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rapraeger of Harbor. Rev. E. C. Hicks performed the ceremony. The couple will live at Corvallis, where the groom is employed.

Pastor Named For Church

Rev. and Mrs. George C. Pearson of Nevada City, will be in charge of the Smith River Methodist church during the month of July. Rev. Pearson was appointed by the annual conference to Potter Valley, but due to illness of the former pastor there he was unable to move this month. He will hold services each Sunday morning in July, and all are invited to come.

Other Smith River Notes

Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison enjoyed a visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marland Rice and three sons, of Albany, over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hocking left Tuesday for a vacation trip to Oregon where they will visit their son, Wilbur Hocking and family and other relatives.

Miss Rose Waters, telephone operator at Beverly Hills, spent the Fourth holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spooner. She left by bus Saturday for her home.

Mrs. Harry Brown is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. L. J. Wolfe of Washougal, Wash., who arrived on the bus Saturday.

July 4 went off quietly around Smith River. Many attended the parade at Crescent City while a number enjoyed picnics along the river, or other picnic spots.

NOTICE

There will be nominations for inside and outside guards and initiation at the Eagles Auxiliary lodge, Friday, July 11 at 8:00 p. m. A social hour will follow. All members are urged to come.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our kind friends for the sympathies and kindnesses shown us during our sorrow when our son and brother was taken from us. We also wish to thank everyone for the cards and flowers.
