An all-time Oregon record for signatures on initiative petitions has been set with 59,192 certified names filed with State Registrar Dave O'Hara on a constitutional amendment establishing the basis for a fair truck tax bill. Here Ellery Sills, president of the Oregon Highway Council (left) and Phil Brady (right), president of the Joint Council of Drivers No. 37, International Teamsters, hand some of the last of the Multnomah County petitions to registrar of elections, James W. Gleason. Eighty-nine and seven-tenths percent of the 65,991 signatures were declared valid by O'Hara.
