

LANGLOIS

By Marion Brooks

Many echoes from the Fourth of July are coming in and here are a few of them. Donna Apling and Norman Holycross were married at Reno, Nev., on the Fourth. They took a short trip through Nevada and California for their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Sabin visited at Albany over the Fourth of July week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Podolski of Eureka were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Berger. They also entertained JoAnn Chapman of Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Coney of Astoria were week-end guests of the Bob Hopkins family over the Fourth. When they returned home Mrs. Hopkins and children accompanied them, going to Longview, Wash., where they spent six days visiting Mrs. Hightower and family, very close friends of many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Billings have a baby girl, Linda Lee, born last Monday.

Ash Cook, father of Happy Cook and Elsie Huntley, passed away Sunday morninf. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Denmark cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner of Oregon City visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Pook, Wednesday.

A baby boy, Ralph Kent, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sweet of Sixes at Mast Hopsital, Myrtle Point, July 9. He weighed seven pounds and eight and a half ounces.

J. A. Buckles, of Selma, father of Mrs. James Brooks, spent the night with Jim and Dolores Brooks Tuesday. Wednesday he took Dolores Brooks back with him so she can visit relatives and friends. On her return she will bring her daughter, Sandy, home, after a 6-weeks vacation at Selma.

Bruce McDonald's daughter is visiting here from Seattle. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. McDonald took her to McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sabol and daughter, all of Tacoma, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bray and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Zimmerman this week.

The John Walker home, located four miles north of Langlois, was burned completely one day last week. New furniture, still in the crates, was burned. A washing machine and refrigerator was all that was saved. These people are deserving of help and anyone with spare bedding, dishes or anyone of the many things need to keep a home, please contact Bob Zimmerman or Elsie Quinn of Denmark and they will take these to the Walker family.

Rev. Lawrence Sunkler and his wife and two daughters of Minneapolis, Minn., spent a week visiting Docia and Art Sweet. The two ladies are sisters. From here they went to Wenatchee, Wash., where they will attend a family re-union.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Smith and family left Saturday for their Hoquiam, Wash., home, after spending two weeks camping on their property on the prairie. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, who have been camping with them, left for Pasadena at the same time.

Mrs. Fay Wilson of Klamath Falls is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Sweet, to help with that new grandson.

H. S. Cadman was taken to the Gold Beach hospital, aturday. He has been ill for some time.

Among the new workers at the cheese factory is Hazel Hofsess and Shirley Phillips. Work is in full swing and many visitors stop each day to see where Langlois Cheese is made.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hopkins had as guests for two days this week, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sass and children of Okanogan, Wash.

Belle Hungerford of Tacoma spent two days this week visiting the Hopkins, Zimmerman and Bray families. She is an aunt of Lorraine and June.

Art Aldropp went to Portland Monday afternoon, taking a Diamond T truck that was wrecked on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Aldropp left Wednesday evening for Portland where Archie will have medical checkup.

Bobby and Arnold Manseth and Torvel Johnson and Janice Oldham all of Eugene visited Mimi Aldropp July 4 to 6.

Mrs. Ray Boston took Lanny to Coquille this week to have a walking cast put on his leg, recently broken.

The Girl Scouts held their meeting July 9, with Lola Sypher. The girls are making lawn ornaments as the present project. They decided to meet every other Wednesday during the summer.

Doroth Wigle of Four Mile is visiting her grandparents at McMinnville.

Cliff Jenkins has the county spray outfit in the notrthern part of the county and now is the time to contact him for weed control.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Quinn and Jean went to Roseburg, July 13 to meet Mrs. Quinn's cousin. They had not seen each other for years.

Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Button attended the Shrine picnic at Myrtle Grove Park Sunday. They went with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hines of Port Orford.

Marie Monson and daughters, Mary Lou and Ann Marie and Sally Everson of Hausen and Mary Ann Roberts of Coquille and Mrs. W. W. Mattoon and daughter, Marilyn of Portland called on Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodworth of Elk River. Mrs. Mattoon and daughter remained for a week with her dad who is ill.

Pomona Grange met at Sixes Grange hall, Saturday. The group was frieved to learn of the death of Master Kathryn Reekban's mother, and missed her. State Deputy Vern Lentz and wife attended and gave a helpful talk to Grangers. It was voted to have a Pomona booth at the county fair and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bush of Harbor, Gus Edstrom and Docia Sweet of Sixes and Mrs. Ramalia. Mrs. Phipps and Mr. Poof of Ophir were named a committee in charge of the booth. Fred Adams spoke on the dange to the R. E. A. under the new presidential administration and asked that steps be taken to safeguard our public power. The Sixes degree team initiated a class of fourth degree members into Pomona.

Charles Doane, a member of Sixes Grange for many years, but an absentee member, was introduced and spoke on Japan and its people. He told of the results of the A-Bomb at Gagasaka, and the way the people are existing in Japan today on a sarvation diet. He said they were a friendly people and he enjoyed them. The Grange enjoyed and wishes to have him tell more of his experiences soon.

Port Orford and Sixes Garden club will have a flower show and tea September 20 and 21. Proceeds of the tea will to gto help furnish the new Grange kitchen now in the process of building.

'Wood-shedding'

By O' SPEB

Looks like we did it, fellers—seems like all those hours and hours of labor up in the "wee" hours paid off. Got a blue ribbon but also wore out a few guys the next day. That purple ribbon makes us decide to build again next year.

By the way, know anybody who wants to buy a good car to start up a trolley company here. After all, we've got to find someone or something to defray the expenses of that "Panzer Trolley."

There has been numerous requests by some of the spectators for some of Dr. Garters heart pills—seems they give you snap.

Word has it that Sid Clendenin had quite a time putting up the advertising. He couldn't seem to find enough help.

Everyone knew it must be getting pretty close to dawn, Saturday night, when chickens started cackling, but they were mightily relieved to find out it was just Pat laughing.

Guess I've done enough damage, see you next week.
