Hank Westbrook Was Married At Portland Ceremony

SMITH RIVER—Of interest to the many friends here is the marriage of Miss Beverly Jean Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robbins of Portland and Henry Westbrook Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westbrook of this place. The wedding was held at the Grace Memorial Episcopal church at Portland. The Rev. John Richardson officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a ballerina dress of white organdy eyelet with net yoke. She was attended by Miss Theodora Norton, matron of honor, who wore pink organdy eyelet.

Bridesmaids were Missess Margaret McGowan and Miss Kay Maier, who wore blue organdy eyelet. The groom was attended by his brother, Robert.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor. The newlyweds left on a wedding trip. They plan to reside in Texas where the groom is in training with the U. S. air force. He recently was graduated from Oregon State College, Corvallis. He had taken air force training at college also.

Clifford Favor Passes

Clifford Favor, 64, passed away suddenly the morning of July 22, from a heart ailment. Mr. Favor, who with his wife, came to this area almost a year ago from the state of Washington, stayed with her aged father, O. M. Rice. Mr. Favor had been in failing health for several months.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Blanche Favor, four children, Audrey VanBuskirk, of Chico, Elton Favor of San Diego, Maxine Van Buskirk of Seattle, Wash., and Glenna Daniels of Orting, Wash; nine grandchildren.

Mr. Favor was an active member of the Seventh-Day Adventist church. He was a native of Cherokee, Iowa, born Dec. 2, 1887, and is the last one of the pioneer Favor family. He visited his old home and firends in Iowa about a year ago. The body is being shipped to Seattle by Roeder Funeral home, with interment to be made at the family plot.

Guests of Klamath Valley Grange

Del Norte Pomona Grange No. 42 was guests of Klamath Valley Grange Tuesday evening, with representatives present from Lake Earl, Crescent Redwood and the Klamath Granges.

Master Leo Kloska of Pomona, who recently returned from a vacation trip to Canada, presided at the business session.

Several important matters were taken care of during the business meeting. Reports were given by the master of each Grange, telling of the activities. Acknowledgment cards was received from the Girl Scout Camp at Bertalina for the donation received for improvements to this camp.

Following the session refreshments were served by Klamath Valley Grange. The Pomona group will enter a booth at Del Norte County Fair at Crescent City in August. The August meeting will be held at Crescent Redwood.
