

Just About Folks!

Dr. J. B. Williams of Los Angeles stopped at the Chetco Inn Monday night and took the bus to his destination, Tacoma, after his Cadillac was wrecked between here and Gold Beach. The car was left at Brookings Garage for body and fender work and a paint job. Mr. and Mrs. George Blunt and family have moved into the new

Famed Girl Musical Team Coming

Marileen and Marjorie Scoville, of iSerra Madre, who play the marimba, ipano and vibra-harp, will be presented at eight o'clock, Saturday evening by Brookings and Harbor Youth For Christ, at the Baptist Community Church. These girls are famed on radio and television.

house they purchased, Saturday from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snderland, on Cove Street.

G. W. Milford, of Rivers End, member of the Red Bluff, Calif., Club, and Arnold Vogel, member of the Sacramento, Calif., club, were guests Tuesday of Brookings Rotary club.

Mrs. Vernon Hanscom and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Welch, at Grants Pass last week. She returned Sunday evening.

Many Brookings residents are attending shows at the new Oean Drive-in Theatre, off Highway 101 north of Crescent City. All claim they have about the best vision they have ever experienced at a drive in at this new place. An advertisement of the firm appears elsewhere in this issue.
