

LANGLOIS

By Marion Brooks

Mr. and Mrs. on Whereat and daughters went to Coquille last Sunday where they met Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ferry and son. From there they went to Powers and on to Agness where they spent the days enjoying a good old-fashioned picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stonecypher and family of Coquille and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Heffner and son of Roseburg visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nilsen at their ranch on Langlois Hill. They enjoyed a picnic lunch.

Docia Sweet and Faye Price left Friday for Klamath Falls where they will attend the Legion Auxiliary convention. They expect to be home, Thursday.

Judy and Janice Boice came home from Corvallis early this week where they had been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cline returned Friday from a week's visit with their son, Darrell, and his wife, at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck are enjoying a month's visit with friends and relatives in California. They will be in Pasadena and Los Angeles as well as other places.

Mrs. Audrey Sypher and daughters, Irene and Ethel, have moved to Coos Bay. She and the girls have been well known in Langlois as the girls have been active in school and 4-H affairs. Fred Hargand, teacher in the high school, will occupy the house left vacant by Mrs. Sypher.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks have sold their Langlois home to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrissey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will live in their trailer house at Silver Springs until cooler weather, when they plan to go to Southern California. Mr. Morrissey is with the Coast Guard at Cape Blanco and Mrs. Morrissey is employed at the H. H. Hansen cheese factory.

Joe Hodges, brother of Mrs. Norman Storm, and his bride have moved to Langlois from Woodland, Calif. They are making their home with the Storms until they can find housing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lloyd and Frank Scully of Hollywood, Calif., were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen recently. Mr. Lloyd was formerly stationed with the coast guard at Bandon. Mrs. Charles Louis and daughter, Jeanette of Eugene called on friends here Saturday.

Wilbur and Judy Jensen, accompanied by their father, played for the pioneer picnic at Norway Saturday afternoon.

Mary Kerber and children left for Garberville, Calif., where she will visit her mother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald were business visitors at Roseburg, Tuesday.

Donna May and Kenneth Longanecker left by bus for North Hollywood, Calif., where they will visit an aunt, grandmother and the John Bruchlers for about two weeks. On their return, Gary, Dolores and Patsy Bruchler will accompany them for a visit here.

Girl Scouts held their regular meeting Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. with Lola Sypher at the Sportsman's Club house. They worked on lawn ornaments, and refreshments were served by Lola and Bobby Jean Sypher.

Corny Cooks 4-H club held its meeting with Mary Kerber at her home, Tuesday and Wednesday. They held discussion of record books and need of having them complete by the 15th so they can be entered in the Curry County Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson and Jeanette left for Newport Saturday where they attended the annual re-union of the Thompson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sabin fished and camped on the Rogue River Friday and on the Sixes Saturday and Sunday. They returned to their ranch on the Coquille River late Sunday.

Lee Cox had the misfortune to break his arm by falling while at play early this week. Saturday Mrs. Ruth Cox and Joan took him to a doctor at Coquille for a check-up on the arm.

Elsie and Jean Quinn returned from a delightful trip through the redwoods and Lassen park, last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parsons of Ashland spent the week-end with Mrs. Parson's father, Art Sweet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Peabody are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pook. Mrs. Peabody, who is Mrs. Pook's sister, arrived Monday and her husband came on Wednesday. They left Monday for their home at Medford.

Lucy Gentry of Sixes has gone to Port Angeles to take a grandson home. The lad has spent some time here with her. Mrs. George Woodworth and sons went with her on the journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner spent the last week-end at Cave Junction visiting her parents.

Sixes Grange met in regular session Saturday night. Mr. and Glen Murdock of South Deer Crk Grange, near Roseburg, were visitors. It was announced that Mary Donaldson had won the regional essay contest on soil conservation for better living. P. K. Lantz spoke on hazards to pedestrians crossings Sixes River bridge, and after discussion it was decided to petition the state highway commission to build a walk, making it safe to cross on foot. Walter Ba-proving. Next meeting will be pot luck supper at 7:30. Be sure to come early and bring plenty to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Kyseth of Burbank, Calif., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Wilcox of Sixes for a week. While here they took the trip up the Rogue River and were impressed by the beauty of the scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Robert Beeson and daughter, Erna Jane of Myrtle Creek were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Beeson here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellefson of Redwood City, Calif., spent the week-end with his uncle, John Moore, and Mrs. Moore.

Don't forget the Sunday school picnic, Aug. 3, at Floras Creek bridge. Bring table service and children without their parents are to bring a half-dozen sandwiches. Others bring well-filled baskets.

Don't forget the Princess selection dance at Sixes Grange on Saturday August 2. At this dance the girl will be chosen to represent northern Curry county at the fair and to compete for honor of being Queen of the Fair for 1952.

The Construction of Your Home or Commercial Building is no better than its

Concrete Foundation

INSIST ON THE BEST!

OUR

SAND and GRAVEL

IS

Screened, Washed and Weighed

TO INSURE

A PRECISION MIX

Hoist and Crane Available For Large Jobs!!

VIBRATORS, CEMENT CHUTES, WHEELBARROWS, CONCRETE HOPPERS AND FINISHING MACHINES AVAILABLE!

Brookings Red-E-Mix Concrete Co.
Phone 2442
Central Building

Southern Curry Fair Princess

SELECTION DANCE

Eddie Desjardin's Orchestra

Chetco Grange Hall

Name Your Princess and Make Her Fair Queen

Saturday, August 9, 1952

Admission: $1.00, plus 20c tax) $1.20