Mrs. Madge Moore spent the week-end here with her husband, but returned to Clear Lake Highlands, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Masten of Klamath Falls were guests of their daughter, and family, Mrs. Ben Kerns, from Friday evening to Monday. The Mastens are dairymen in that locality.

J. A. Matot accompanied R. W. Ray to Portland and Seattle on a combined business and pleasure trip this week. They will be gone a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ostenberg took Danny and Gary Fitzhugh, Bobby Scothorn, Ken Wallen and Donna Newman to the Seventh-Day Adventists junior camp at Milo, out of Canyonville Sunday. The youngsters will stay a week.

Daly's new store at Crescent City was the mecca of many local people last Thursday, the opening day of the store.

Mrs. George Murry, Mrs. Wayne Davis and Mrs. Dewey Spence and children attended the Gladioli Festival and parade at Grants Pass on Sunday. Mrs. Murry says the parade and display of gladioli was nice, but not as extensive as the lily parade in Brookings. Only 18 floats were in the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rhoads are two people who get things done. They are now comfortably established in their new home on Pioneer road, begun last spring. A great deal of the building has been done by themselves and yet they have found time to plant a garden which is well advanced.

Ross Putnam flew to Los Angeles Monday. Mrs. Putnam drove to Ukiah the same day, on business, connected with their operations near there.

An uncle, Charles Patterson of Haxton, Colo., is visiting his nephew, Charles Young. A brother, Lafe Young, and family of San Bernadino, Calif., are also visiting at the Young home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Ackley left early this week for Redding, Calif., and Medford on legal business. The office will be closed until Saturday, the day they expect to return.

Twenty-five years is a long time for two brothers to be apart, as Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kenaston and son, Ray, of Linn, Kansas, found out late last week. They are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kenaston, on the Cape Ferrello road.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Breuer went to Myrtle Point over the week-end where they visited relatives. Their daughters, who had been visiting in that area for a couple of weeks, returned with them.

Art Browman, brother of Bill Browman of this city, was caught in the wheel of a sawmill at Klamath, Calif., last week. He managed to pull his crushed arm away, leaving the hand in the machinery. He was working alone, and was able to walk to the first aid station for help. His arm was amputated above the wrist. He is now at Seaside Hospital, Crescent City.

The Southern Curry Realty Co. has extended its office space, with a new entrance and a new front.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ewinney enjoyed an overnight visit from their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Grayshel Swinney and two children of Ardmore, Okla. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Sears and Don Baker, also of the same city.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wach (the former Mary Ann Biddle) are the parents a 9-lb. 4-oz. son, born at Eugene, July 24. The young man has been named Albert Leland. Mrs. Walter Biddle is in Eugene taking care of her daughter and the newcomer.
