Deep-Sea Fishing Remains Attractive

Although the school is heading northward, presumably to enter the Columbia or some other coastal river for spawning, silverside salmon fishing this week remains quite an attraction to local people and tourists who are flocking the area by scores.

Although the sea was rather rough Sunday, fair catches were reported, but Saturday's catches were average or above.

Cedar Lane Cannery has been keeping the Pilot printing office busy for a few days preparing the can labels for the fish which has been piled in that establishment.

This, in addition to the commercial canning done by the firm, puts all hands to work seven days a week. Many labels are needed. Parkers Anchorage personnel is kept in high gear trying to accommodate the people wishing to go out deep-sea fishing.
