

HARBOR NEWS

Leo Lucas killed a large 300 lb. black bear near Yank Prairie in the Upper Chetco country Thursday about dusk. He had left Wilson Prairie to look for his horses when he saw the bear and wounded it with the first shot, then finished it off with two more shots. He drove to town and got Don Young to go back with him to help load the animal in the pick-up to bring home.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shrader returned home recently after spending six weeks helping their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Elkin, at their mine near Oroville, Calif. They report that there were several days that the temperature reached 110 degrees, which for a native of this section, is just too warm to enjoy.

Miss Geraldine Beem left Saturday to spend a weeks vacation from her work at the Harbor Store, visiting relatives and having a physical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy and daughter, June, enjoyed a visit over the Labor Day weekend from Mrs. Kennedy's nephew, Gene Hollowell, of Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howie, accompanied by Mrs. Howie's mother, Mrs. Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Payton, all of Klamath Falls, spent a recent weekend at the home of Mr. Howie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaal.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Vance and three children and Andrew Briner, of Coquille, visited at the home of the Vance's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Perez, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammond, of Woodbine, Iowa, are house-guests at the home of Mrs. Hammond's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers. The first thing that Bob did with his brother-in-law was to show him how to dig lilies and put him to work.

Milton Foster left last week to visit for a while at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boiley, near Klamath Falls.

The annual beach picnic held Sunday by the VFW and the VFW Auxiliary at Mill Beach was a very enjoyable affair with a large group present.

Walter Garvin, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Garvin, of Smith River, left with five other Del Norte young men last week for San Francisco to be inducted into the army. The Garvins are former well known residents of this area. Their oldest son, Verne, who was inducted into the army last spring, sailed from San Francisco about three weeks ago to serve in Okinawa.

Mrs. William Ackerman and daughter, Jackie, of Fort of Salmon, Calif., are spending the winter here with her sister, Mrs. Koy Sandstrom while Jackie is attending the Adventist school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Courtney of Santa Ana, arrived the first of the week to visit at the home of Mrs. Courtney's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller. The two men are ardent fishermen and they will enjoy the salmon fishing season on the Chetco. The

Seems like we put on pretty good show up at Port Orford Saturday night—had a very appreciative crowd, also some top-notch entertainment. "The Foursome" the "Postal Notes" from Roseburg, plus the "Four by Fours" quartet from Eugene was there; and "Ice House Four" from Crescent City; and, of course, we had Bob Perkins down from North Bend as MC.; then after the show we were treated to dinner by the Port Orford group.

The visitors at Monday nights' practice were of the singing variety. There was Nick Neufeld, who was once a Berbershopper here, and is now living in Stayton, Ore.; Dick Alexander, who has the Photo Studio here, was there and sang in the lead section.

Say, Luther—you mean they had mother-in-laws back in the stone age too? First time I ever heard of a choral leaders leading a chorus to his own birthday song.

Words are going to be had with a couple of wandering minstrels, eh, eh. Going to Crescent City to the movies.

See you Monday night.

Courtneys spent a couple of weeks on the Klamath before coming on up to Harbor.

Mrs. R. D. Chambers returned from Logan, Iowa, where she had been called by the illness of her mother, who is some better at this time.

Mrs. Ella Fisher, of Waldport, Ore., has been enjoying a nice visit at the Bell Ranch in Carpenterville and has visited various old-time friends around Brookings and Harbor.
