PERDUE INFANT SON DIES TUESDAY

Guy Cecil Perdue, Jr., thirteen month old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Perdue of Harbor passed away at the Seaside hospital September 16 after being ill most of his short life.

The funeral services were held at Crescent City on Thursday afternoon. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson of Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Perdue are the parents of another son born on September 14, at the Seaside hospital, and which they have named William Clifford.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith spent a recent week-end at Ashland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Meyer enjoyed a ten day visit from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Meyers, who left for their home in San Fernando on Sunday.

From reports going around, Leo Lucas isn't the only one getting their bear in the upper Chetco country these days. Al Clement killed two recently which were caught in the trap set on his place by Bill Hemple, off from Northern Prairie, and Harry Hill and Howard Gardner have also a couple to their credit.

John J. Van Pelt had to have the two middle fingers of his left hand taken off at the first joint at the hospital in Gold Beach on the 15th. He had his fingers crushed badly about ten days previous to that, but the effort to save the fingers was unsuccessful.

Mrs. Emma Waldien returned home recently after visiting relatives in southern California for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harley Smith have moved to Roseburg to make their home after living here for some time. Mrs. Smith has reentered the Douglas County health service and is back on the job of Public Health Nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Webb arrived from Millerton, Pennsylvania last week with the intention of making their permanent home at their place above Harbor, now that they have sold their mill in Pennsylvania.

With daylight saving time time changing to standard time this coming Sunday, patrons of the local postoffice should remember that the morning mail will go out an hour earlier, and the afternoon mail come in that much earlier. This makes it much better for the distribution of the afternoon mail, but rushes things terribly in the morning.

PFC Tony Felipe is spending a fifteen day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Felipe. He will have to return to his station at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan where he is a radio operator, the latter part of the month.

Roy Newman is one of the happiest residents of this area, as his mother, Mrs. Blanche Maney arrived from De Smet, South Dakota recently to make her home with him. She made many friends when she spent several months here last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Young of Akron, Ohio were house guests at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Woodruff last week, leaving the latter part of the week to continue their trip thru southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brubaker of Berkely, California were house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chambers for a couple days the first of the week.

The Chetco grange hall is receiving a badly needed coat of paint at the present time, which is greatly improving its appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dotson and son Sammy, spent last week at Woodland, California where they visited Mrs. Dotson's mother, Mrs. Estelle Garrard, and other members of her family. The group was joined by a sister, Miss Martha Garrard, who had spent the past two years working for the government in Germany and Portugal. Mr. Dotson and Sammy continued on to Austin, Texas to visit his relatives for a couple of weeks, while Mrs. Dotson and Miss Garrard returned home on Sunday, as Mrs. Dotson has accepted the position of teaching the extra first and second grade class found necessary and which will be in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson returned home Sunday from a trip which took them to Seattle, Grand Coulee dam and the western Washington fair at Puyallup. They visited Mrs. Gustafson's sons, Thor and Ole Ask and their families on Vashon Island, the two men having just returned from Alaska where they worked during the summer for a fishing company.

Mrs. Clara Kern and Mrs. Edith Ackley are on a few weeks trip which will take them to Yellowstone Park and other points of interest.

Mrs. Florence Royer of Culver

City is visiting friends on the Winchuck for a few weeks. The Royers made their home in that area for several years before moving to southern California about ten years ago.
