At a nuptial mass which was celebrated in St. Marys Catholic Cathedral on September 6th, Miss Nancy M. Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vincent of Oswego, formerly of Brookings, became the bride of Joseph John O'Rourke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. O'Rourke of Pendleton. Mr. Vincent gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a French original gown in Dresden pink of nylon over satin, which was bordered with imported lace in a slightly deeper shade of pink. Mrs. Thomas Davidson of Hermiton was matron of honor and Miss Joan Byrne of Brookings, Miss Sara Potts and Miss Patricia McCully were bridesmaids. The four attendants were dressed in identical gowns of satin and tulle in midnight rose with matching tulle hats.

James P. O'Rourke was best man, and ushers were Thomas O'Rourke, James Vincent, Donald Rose, Robert Edwards and Jerome Gregoire.

A reception was held in the Marine room of the Multnomah hotel.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Mable Stonehouse, Mrs. Arthur Guthrie, Miss Katherine Hall and Mrs. Mildred Byrne, all of Brookings.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke are now living at 226 South Williams, Denver, Colorado.

Mr. O'Rourke has a teaching fellowship while he studies for his masters degree at Denver University, and Mrs. O'Rourke plans to continue her college work.
