

Smallest City Park In The World?

William Waldo, Oregon pioneer of the early 1840's, built himself a home in Salem before the City Fathers got around to laying out the city streets. One day, in 1872, an itinerant peddler drove by Mr. Waldo's front door and sold him a little Sequoia Gigantea seedling which he had brought all the way from the Yosemite Valley, and which the pioneer planted in his front yard. The seedling liked the climate, nestled its roots deep in the Salem soil and grew so big that when the City Dads laid Summer street right through Waldo's front yard they didn't have the heart to uproot the stranger. So they drew a circle around it just big enough for it to stand in and dedicated it as a municipal park. If anybody knows of a smaller city park that can show more board feet, Salem's city manager would like to hear about it.

Newest custom to catch hold at girls schools and colleges is tea and snacks. Between classes, during study hours and for those nightly gatherings in the dorms the girls brew a pot of hearty, hefty tea. Then how the conversation flows! Here's how the girls like their tea. For each cup of fragrant, refreshing tea they put one teaspoon of loose tea or one teabag into a pot adding one more "for the pot." Over this they pour bubbling, boiling water and let it stand from three to five minutes. Cookies and cakes from home, or crackers and little sandwiches quickly made up with cheeses and spreads, always accompany the tea.

Local Firm Sponsors Radio Program

Hendricks' Furniture Co., Brookings, local Hopoint appliance dealer, announced today that the store has joined with more than 11,000 other Hopoint dealers across the country to sponsor "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet," a new one-half hour radio and television comedy show beginning Friday, October 3.

Mr. Hendricks said the new $2 million program will be carried over the ABC network by 325 radio and 56 television stations, the largest number of stations ever to carry any new show presented on a major network.

The program features Ozzie Nelson, his wife Harriet, and their two sons, Ricky, 11, and David, 15, in a series of family home scenes. Action takes place in a studio set that reproduces actual rooms in the Nelson's home.

Mr. Hendricks said he helped to select the "Ozzie and Harriet" show because it has a wide appeal to family audiences, and shows a typical American family in everyday situations. Since the program went on the air in 1944, it has won the National Association Award for Better Radio and Television as the best family situation comedy on the air, and was selected by the General Federation of Women's Clubs as the best program for family listening.
