If anyone finds Peggy's coat, Blair's red and black plaid jacket and a white blouse wandering up and down the streets, please direct them to the new home east of the greenhouses—cold weather is coming on.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Later and Mrs. Jaunita (Kinion) Barton drove up from Fort Ord on Tuesday to move possessions back to that locality near the camp. Loren returned by bus and the girls left on Wednesday with the car. The two families have neighboring apartments. Ruth and Jaunita were school mates in the Brookings school.

Mrs. J. E. Stevenson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Alfred May to San Diego when they returned to their home there this week. Mrs. Stevenson will visit her son Dr. Newton at the Naval Hospital and his family. The May's have been doing some improving at their ranch up the Chetco river.

Cliff Beem went to Portland on the bus Saturday night to enter the Veterans Hospital for treatment.

A note from the Walter Jones who have made their home for some time in San Francisco, gives a new address—4543 Redding St. in Oakland. Betty and Walter are owners of a large hill-top home off the highway in west Brookings.

Leaving Saturday for the eastern Oregon hunting area were Don Craig and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brimm, and nephew, Byron, F. N. Tygart and John Darger.

J. J. Gallagher at Seaside Hospital will have the attention of a Eureka eye specialist next week. Those in charge of his case are asking that his eyes be taken care of so that his blood pressure may be reduced.
