For What It's Worth .

By CLIFFORD P. ROWE

I was well pleased with the response I received to my request for letters from readers telling why they were backing their candidate for president. The majority, as I believe is true for most of us, were guilty of running down the other candidate rather than supporting their own. At any rate here is my winner among those supporting the Democratic nominee. The Republican winner will appear in next week's paper.

I'M FOR ADLAI STEVENSON

I believe candidate Adlai E. Stevenson should be elected our next president and not just because he is a Democrat; I'm looking strictly at the individual. I also believe that General Eisenhower is a fine American and general, but I think Governor Stevenson would make the better president.

In Governor Stevenson I like his integrity; he is capable and strong. I like the way he treats us as adults. He puts the issues to us as he sees them and gives us credit for being able to understand the present day situation. He faces all major topics, saying what he thinks and not just what he thinks we want to hear.

He doesn't make a lot of promises which he can't keep. This gives me confidence in him as well as creating respect. I like his views on foreign policy; and I believe that if anyone can clean up corruption in the government, he can.

I like his thriftiness and believe that if it is possible for anyone to reduce our taxes, Governor Stevenson is the man to do it just the same as I feel that if anyone will make an effort to stop the "Korean war", he will.

Last but not least, I admire his ability to write his own speeches and to think for himself. I sincerely believe that Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois will make an honest and sincere president of the United States.
