By Marion Brooks

Art Aldropp, H. H. Hansen and Glen Kerber left Tuesday for Vale, Oregon, where they will do some pheasant hunting. One their return they will stop at Klamath Falls for duck and goose hunting.

Among those attending the training meeting for P.M.A. committee men at Gold Beach Thursday were Don McKenzie, Paul Wagner and Henry Adolphson of Elk River, Ray Zumwalt of Sixes and C. H. Brooks of Langlois.

Dad Woodworth of Elk River has been ill and in the hospital at Bandon for a week. He was expected home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brooks received word of the birth of a new grandson, James William, born Oct. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Don Brooks of Tulelake, Calif.

May Hollingsworth has gone to Newberg for about two weeks. She plans on being there for election day to cast her vote as every good citizen should.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lang of Denmark, a son, Earl Allen, on Oct. 14, at the Bandon hospital.

Walter Jefferies was struck by a car on the north approach to Floras creek bridge and killed

Friday night. He had been living with the Les Huntley family on Sixes river for some time. The inquest was to be held in Gold Beach on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whalen have returned from a trip to Reno, Nevada. They stopped in Medford, taking Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kane with them. While they were gone they had the floor recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kane and son Arthur of Medford spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kane. They came down to get in on the first of the duck hunting.

Arthur Kane spent three weeks of the buck hunting season with son Harvey in Medford.

Pat Boice and Glenda Holycross gave a shower Friday night at the high school for Iris Losbaugh. A table covered with gifts was attractively decorated with yellow crepe paper and the refreshment table was decorated with two heart-shaped cakes banked on all sides with yellow nasturtians. The effect was very pretty. The evening was spent playing bingo. The honoree was the recipient of many attractive and useful gifts. Geraldine Kruetzer and Ann Tomlinson assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parsons and children of Ashland and Mrs. Parsons' sister, Mrs. Flossie Johnson, are the guests of Mrs. Parsons parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sweet of Sixes, this week. They are caring for their cranberry bog while here.

Don Whereats grandmother, Mrs. Whereat of North Bend, is visiting Don and his family this week.

Langlois Extension Unit will meet at the home of June Hopkins Nov. 6. The subject to be demonstrated is "Oven Meals." All ladies are welcome to come and are urged to do so. The meeting will start at 10:30 and the leaders will be June Hopkins and Dorothy Beeson.

Miss Wacken has as weekend guests four girls who are attending Monmouth Teachers College. On Saturday they and Miss Hughes, Miss Fisher and Miss McConnell, all of the Langlois school's teaching staff, made the trip to Agness via the mailboat. They took a picnic lunch and had a really enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck went to Coquille Saturday afternoon to hear a sermon given by a missionary who has spent twenty years in India. He reported that it was a very fine and enlightening talk.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore foved back to Langlois Saturday after a summer spent at their cabin up Sixes river. Mr. Moore is night watchman for Moore Mills at their logging operation on Sixes.

Mr. Al Volck spent a couple of days this week with his sister in Coos Bay. He was waiting to have a fender of his car repaired and spent the time helping his sister with some work on her house.

Sixes Grange met Saturday night in regular session. One candidate was obligated in the first and second degrees. Plans were made for an Armistice Day dinner to be given Nov. 11. It is planned to serve from 3 to 8 in the evening. Ham and chicken dinners will be featured.
