

Notes From the Alexander Studio

The rains have come. They were just what Fern Alley needed. Now to catch a big Chinook!

This is the time of the year when thoughts turn to turkeys, pumpkin pies, and family reunions. You want a permanent memento of this year's Thanksgiving. A family portrait is just the thing and a very nice gift for relatives too.

Appointments may be arranged outside regular studio hours. No. 6 Manley Bldg Tel. 2864 (Downstairs)

HARBOR NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Z. Smith returned to their Harbor home Sunday after spending the summer running a resort on Fish Lake in the Steen Mountains out from Burns. This resort was featured in the August issue of the Sunset Magazine and they report that many people came out to it as the result of reading the article.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ray arrived Friday evening from Rodeo, Calif., where they have been for the past several months, and plan to remain here to make their home.

Mrs. Nora Straus and Mrs. Gertrude Stanley of Eagle Point were weekend visitors at the Herbert Payne home. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pettigrew as they knew them well when the Pettigrew's made their home near Eagle Point several years ago.

Word has been received from the Hanscam and Victor Anderson elk hunting party that Merle Hanscam and Vic Anderson have already gotten their elk, but that "Ramrod Grandma" Hanscam hadn't done so well yet.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Joy returned home Sunday after visiting for a couple of weeks with their daughter, Mrs. John Prideaux and her family, at Stayton, Oregon.

It was reported last week that Fred, Swede and Harold Gardner were now bringing the bears in four at a time instead of singly as most people do. This week they fell down a little as they only brought three more in to show off from their trapping in the Red Mountain Prairie country.

VICTORY SHUFFLE PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Saturday the 8th of November a dance was held at the Grange hall sponsored by the Junior Class and their advisor, Mrs. H. Chaney. Tickets were sold for several days in advance by members of the class for $1.00 per person.

Refreshments at the dance consisted of home made pie and cake, sandwiches, Coke and coffee. At the closing of the dance several pies and boxes of candy were auctioned off by students. The door prize, an electric pop corn popper was won by Mrs. Swearingen of Brookings.

The highly appreciated music was furnished by the Crocketts of Harbor. A good sum was taken to help the juniors give the Junior-Senior Prom, which is held every spring.

The entire Junior Class wish to thank all who participated.
