SMITH RIVER

The members and friends of the Smith River church attended the song service and welcome party for the new minister and family on Sunday evening at the church. Many of the favorite hymns were sung during the song service, with Mrs. Evelyn Slater at the piano. A reception followed to welcome Rev. and Mrs. James Slielton and two daughters who will take charge of Smith River Church. Refreshments were served to the large attendance present. All reported having had a good meeting together.

Supervisor Fred Haight has returned home from a trip to Palo Alto where he visited his daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Ira Thatcher, also visited his grand daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shafer and his great granddaughter Cindy. The Shafers left for New Jersey where Shafer who is in the navy will be in training there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Woods are the proud parents of a 9 pound son born November 8 at Seaside hospital. The little fellow has been named Kenneth Walter and has two little sisters who will welcome the brother. Grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Layman.

Mrs. Mabel Browne is enjoying several days visit with her daughter Mrs. Harold Horn and daughter Miss Betty of Klamath Falls, Ore., who arrived Sunday.

Among the Del Norte Grangers who attended the Curry County Pomona Grange held at Chetco Grange hall on Saturday Nov. 8th were Ethel Goodhite and Kathryn Wier of Lake Earl Grange and Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips of Crescent Redwood Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook are taking a vacation trip and will motor to many places of interest. They will go to Grand Canyon and Arizona and will return for the big foot ball game at Berkeley and spend Thanksgiving with their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Leon Twigg at Palo Alto.

Local News

Joe Gallagher spent a couple days in Crescent City at the Seaside hospital the first of the week. Karl Osterberg went to Dr. Stumps office on Monday for treatment and Mr. Gallagher returned home with him.
