Just About Folks

Al Phillips "brought home the bacon" when he met friends, beyond Pendleton, for a ten-day elk hunt. A six point bull elk fell to his marksmanship. Al says they took a pack train in from the usual hunting grounds and fishing was particularly good. They made limit catches of trout which were cooked on the spot and tasted better than usual. Mrs. Mendenhall says Val Sr. is undergoing thorough examination at the Veterans Hospital in Portland and may be there for some time. His address is Ward 5-B. His friends hope he will soon be enjoying better health.
