

Christiansens Honored By Farewell Service

A farewell service was held Saturday evening by the members of the Seventh-Day Adventist church for Elder and Mrs. A. G. Christiansen, who are leaving Brookings to make their home near Santa Cruz.

An appropriate program was rendered, consisting of a solo, "Face to Face," by Louise Ostenberg, accompanied by La Merne Christensen on the violin and Fern Graham at the piano.

A reading, entitled "Crooked Trees," was given by Louise Ostenberg. Mrs. Metcalf sang "Just a Closer Walk With Thee." Marie Funk gave a reading on "Memories."

Pastor Metcalf spoke of the helpful influence of Elder and Mrs. Christiansen in the church and presented the gifts. The church choir sang "Never Part Again," and the program closed with all singing "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again."

No ideal drug for the treatment of tuberculosis has yet been discovered, but drugs such as streptomycin and PAS (paraaminosalicylic acid) and isoniazid have proved valuable in treating certain types of the disease.

LANGLOIS

By Marion Brooks

This past week has seen most of our teachers gone to their homes in various parts of the state, our students returning for a short recess from their chosen schools, and many family gatherings in the spirit of Thanksgiving in the Langlois area. May we continue to be thankful throughout the year for the many blessings God has bestowed upon us as a people and a nation. We are indeed fortunate to be living in a land so richly blessed.

Among the students at home over the Thanksgiving recess are Nancy and Roger Moore, Vera and Charles Clarke and Dick Everest from the University of Oregon. They arrived Wednesday and will return on Sunday. Joanne Henry, who is attending St. Helen's Hall, flew down Tuesday evening and was met by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry, at North Bend airport.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Moore and May Hollingsworth went out to their old home community to attend the annual Thanksgiving family reunion, which was held at the home of Mr. Moore's sister in Scholls this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Nilsen and their granddaughter, Jo Anne Stonecypher, of Coquille left Friday for Grants Pass. They attended the wedding of another granddaughter, Mary Jean Griffen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffen and Robert Larcraida of Grants Pass.

Langlois extension unit will meet at the home of Marion Brooks on Floras Lake road on Thursday, Dec. 14. The lesson will be Sweet Dough and the different buns and sweet bread cakes made from it. Project leaders are Lorane Zimmerman and Marion Brooks. The meeting starts at 10:30 a.m. All interested women are invited to attend.

Nirta Easterling of Wagner, S. Dak., sister of Pastor Wm. Easterling, arrived Wednesday for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Easterling. She expects to remain until some time in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilcox, who have been running the boat and fishing concession at Floras Lake this summer, left for Roseburg Saturday. Owen Smith will take over the boat service Dec. 1.

Ted Hoover's parents from Fossil, Ore., are visiting the Ted Hoover family this week. Mr. Hoover, Sr., is postmaster at Fossil.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clarcen spent Thanksgiving with the Lloyd Clausen family at Grand Ronde. They made the trip in that new Chevee.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Merz of Ada, their son, Bob, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thorne were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jo Everest. Mrs. Thorne returned with Mr. and Mrs. Merz to Ada where she will visit a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bird spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Coos Bay.

Clic Sydnam went to Lipton, Calif., to visit his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Gilbert. He expects to be home about the first of December.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Smith went out to Corvallis to spend Thanksgiving with the Roy Stein family. On their return they brought their son, Ronnie, back with them. He has been with the Steins for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boice and children and Carrie Boice went to Benton City, Wash., to spend a few days with the Tex Autrey family.

The Langlois blue cheese factory has been a very busy place for the past couple of weeks. Monday they expect to start shipment of the Christmas orders and it always is the busiest time of the year for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Noble were in Coquille Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Masters, Sr., of Garberville, Calif., and Mr. Jean Masters, Jr., of Salem, Ore., are visiting the Glen Kerbers this week. Also Rodney and Gary Kerber are home from school in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Morrell and sons visited the V. V. Young home on Two Mile Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Henry and son Frank, Mrs. S. E. Cheever, Wesley Patton, John Gerber and Ethel Corrick were Thanksgiving day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jensen entertained a group of 23 friends and relatives on Thanksgiving day.

Last Sunday the Strain family had a reunion at the home of Henry Strain, honoring their sister, Estelle, who had been gone for over 30 years without keeping touch with the family and returned unexpectedly. She had been living in Montana and has several grown-up children. One son accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Geer and daughters were in Coos Bay with her sister, Mrs. James McClarin, for Thanksgiving. It was a family gathering with 23 present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Broady returned Friday from a week's visit with their daughters in Eureka, Calif.

Teachers workshop will be held Thursday and Friday, Dec. 4 and 5 in Coos Bay. All local teachers will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Cline of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cline over Thanksgiving. Mrs. A. A. Cline has been quite ill and her friends will be glad to know she is showing some improvement.

Word has been received that Henry Adolphsen is beginning to improve after his recent operation.

According to C. H. Brooks, P.M.A. county committeeman, there will be a signup day at Sixes Grange hall Friday, Dec. 5. All farmers of northern Curry county who expect to participate in the 1953 P.M.A. program should be there to sign up on this day as they might not have a further opportunity. The P.M.A. committee will be on duty all day.

Tuberculosis can most easily be cured when discovered in its early stage, but it has no noticeable symptoms until it is far advanced. A chest X-ray can discover early TB. Everyone should have a chest X-ray at least once every year, even if he feels perfectly well.
