Grange Plans Holiday Events

At the regular meeting of Chetro Grange Friday evening, plans were made for several holiday events. The first on the schedule will be the annual Christmas party, held following short meeting on Dec. 19. Mrs. Else Ravekes is chairman of the committee in charge of this party. Everyone attending is requested to bring a present in the price range of 39-50 cents for the gift exchange, and Grangers are to bring sandwiches or cake for the refreshments.

On Christmas night, open house is being held at the Grange hall by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swinney in honor of their golden wedding anniversary. They expect about thirty members of their family to be here for the occasion and all their friends are invited to help them celebrate the event.

On New Year's eve, the Grangers and their invited guests are planning a party to welcome the year 1953 in an appropriate manner. The series of events will be completed with the installation of officers at the first meeting in January, the third.

County Deputy Fred Adams and his assistants from Ophir Grange will conduct the installation.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served at tables beautifully decorated with holly, by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Carson.

Pilot Copies Wanted

In doing some house cleaning at The Pilot office extra copies of various 1952 issues are on hand. If there is anyone wanting a special number we are glad to let you go through the pile. These we will keep for a short time before destroying them.

The catch to this article is that we are wanting two or three copies of a few issues for our 1952 files, which are March 20, April 10, and Aug. 14. If anyone happens to have these numbers and they are not especially needed by the holder we will be glad to buy them back.
