

LANGLOIS

Mr and Mrs Leslie Moore left for Legard and Sherwood Tuesday to spend the holidays with his children and relatives who live in that vicinity

Dr and Mrs Striker went out to Roseburg over the Christmas holidays to be with their son,

1953

Best Wishes For a

Happy New Year

THE DAIRY CREAM THE CAMPBELLS and DEWS

Mike, and his family

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sweet spent Christmas day with their daughter and family in Ashland. Mrs. Sweet's brother arrived from Wenatchee, Wash., to spend a week visiting and working on their cabin.

Mrs. Leslie Moore entertained a group of ladies Monday afternoon in honor of Mr. Moore's sister, May Hollingsworth. After chatting for a while, refreshments of ice cream, cake and Christmas cookies were served. Cards with birthday greetings and gifts were presented Mrs. Hollingsworth as the affair was in honor of her birthday. Ladies attending were Mesdames Jim White, Worth and Clarence Brooks. An inspection of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore ended the afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Langlois Community church will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 6. Dr. Roach of the Presbyterian church of Roseburg will be present and various church matters will be discussed with him. All those interested in the building of a new church building are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brooks went to Tulelake, Calif., Tuesday to spend Christmas with their son Don and family. They returned Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lex Cope spent the holidays in Roseburg with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins were in Malin, Ore., with the Gerald Quinn family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks and their daughter, Sandy, spent the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckles of Selma, Ore., and her two sisters, Arleen and Norma, of Grants Pass.

The community was shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. W. E. Price. Faye was active in Star, Grange and Legion, and loved by all who knew her. We will all miss her music and her happy smile. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband.

Local Teacher Has Article Published

Herschel Chaney, teacher of commercial subjects in Brookings high school, was happy to learn last week that his article, "Let's Make Practice Practical," was published in the December issue of the Balance Sheet, a professional commercial magazine.

Mr. Chaney is working toward his doctorate of education, taking correspondence courses from the University of California. His undergraduate and graduate work was taken at the University of Kentucky. Before coming to Brookings Mr. Chaney taught at Vancouver Business college.

Since the publication Mr. Chaney has received letters from various parts of the country asking to teaching of commercial subjects.

Calif., as well as the Guschu Mission at Rivers End. Sunday school at the church in Smith River begins at 10 o'clock a.m., the church services at 11:00 and evening meeting at 7:30, p.m. Christmas programs were given in each of the churches, decorated with trees and greens. Everyone is made welcome by Rev. Shelton and his friendly wife at all gatherings at his church.

LOCAL NEWS

Rev. James R. Shelton, pastor of the Community Methodist church in Smith River, was a Brookings visitor last Friday. He also serves the parish of Klamath, Pilot Class Ads get results!

Holiday Greetings

May the New Year
hold only happiness

for you.

1953

MR. AND MRS.
KARL OSTENBERG

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Here's luck, in all your undertakings.

1953

GENE and BERT WHITE and MATOT COMPANY

...the best one yet...

1952

1953

We're wishing you
a bigger, better,
and happier New Year for 1953.

CURRY COUNTY LUMBER CO.

A Peaceful New Year...

1953

Our thanks to everyone in town for his good will and friendship.

HENDRICKS FURNITURE
ARCHIE AND MALISA